

MARGARET K. LEWIS
Seton Hall University School of Law
One Newark Center
Newark, NJ 07102
(973) 642-8821
margaret.lewis@shu.edu

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

SETON HALL UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, Newark, New Jersey

Associate Professor of Law, July 2009

Courses: Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure II: Prosecution & Adjudication, Law in Contemporary China, Transnational Law, Human Rights and Criminal Justice, Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition (Faculty Advisor)

Committees: Appointments, Admissions, Curriculum, Graduation, Public Interest Fellowship Selection Committee, Summer International Law Fellowship Selection Committee

EDUCATION

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, New York, New York

Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, May 2003

Honors: Order of the Coif
New York University Law Review – Associate Editor 2002-2003, Staff Editor 2001-2002
Leonard J. Schreier Memorial Prize in Ethics – for academic excellence in the area of ethics
Dean's Scholarship – full tuition scholarship based upon academic merit
Teaching Assistant, President John Sexton – The Supreme Court and the Religion Clauses

Study Abroad: BUCERIUS LAW SCHOOL, Hamburg, Germany, Fall 2002

HOPKINS – NANJING CENTER FOR CHINESE AND AMERICAN STUDIES, Nanjing, China, 1997-1998

Graduate-level program administered by the Johns Hopkins University Paul H. Nitze School of Advanced International Studies. All reading and writing assignments in Chinese.

Honors: Hassenfeld Fellowship – academic fellowship for full tuition

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, New York, New York

B.A. in East Asian Languages and Cultures, summa cum laude, May 1997

Honors: Phi Beta Kappa, Departmental Honors

Study Abroad: FUDAN UNIVERSITY, Shanghai, China, Spring 1996

DUKE STUDY IN CHINA PROGRAM, Beijing and Nanjing, China, Summer/Fall 1995

PUBLICATIONS

Book

LESSONS FOR CHINA: HOW TAIWAN CURBED ARBITRARY POLICE POWER (co-authored with Jerome A. Cohen) (English and Chinese versions in progress)

Law Review Articles

Presuming Innocence, or Corruption, in China, 50 COLUM. J. TRANSNAT'L L. 287 (2012)

Controlling Abuse to Maintain Control: The Exclusionary Rule in China, 43 N.Y.U. J. INT'L L. & POL. 629 (2011) (awarded Jerome A. Cohen Prize for International Law and East Asia)

The Tension Between Leniency and Severity in China's Death Penalty Debate, 24 COLUM. J. ASIAN L. 303 (2011) (invited submission)

Taiwan's New Adversarial System and the Overlooked Challenge of Efficiency-Driven Reforms, 49 VA. J. INT'L L. 651 (2009)

Note, An Analysis of State Responsibility for the Chinese-American Airplane Collision Incident, 77 N.Y.U. L. REV. 1404 (2002)

Other Journal Articles

China's Implementation of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, ASIAN J. OF CRIMINOLOGY, Vol. 2, No. 2 (2007)

Book Chapters

Legal Systems in China, in THE ROUTLEDGE HANDBOOK OF CHINESE CRIMINOLOGY (Liquan Cao, et al. eds., Routledge, 2013)

The Enduring Importance of Police Repression: Laojiao, the Rule of Law and Taiwan's Alternative Evolution, in THE IMPACT OF CHINA'S 1989 TIANANMEN MASSACRE (co-authored with Jerome A. Cohen) (Jean-Philippe Béja, ed., Routledge, 2010)

Book Reviews

Susan Trevaskes, The Death Penalty in Contemporary China, THE CHINA J. (forthcoming)

David T. Johnson & Franklin E. Zimring, The Next Frontier: National Development, Political Change, and the Death Penalty in Asia, 11 PUNISHMENT & SOC'Y 109 (2010)

Other Publications

Pregnant in China, Letter to the Editor, N.Y. TIMES, July 24, 2012, at A20

Presunción de Inocencia y Corrupción en China, ANUARIO DE DERECHO PENAL ECONÓMICO Y DE LA EMPRESA (ECONOMIC AND BUSINESS CRIMINAL LAW ANNUAL) (Económico y de la Empresa, Peru, 2012) (Spanish translation by Luis Reyna of Presuming Innocence, or Corruption, in China)

The Illegal Evidence Exclusion Rule in China, ORIENTAL L., No. 6 (2011) & No. 1 (2012) (Chinese translation by Lin Xifen of Controlling Abuse to Maintain Control: The Exclusionary Rule in China)

Report of the Mission to China of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, 48 COLUM. J. TRANSNAT'L L. 519 (2010) (with Jerome A. Cohen et al.)

International Law Takes Center Stage in Legal Education, NAT'L L.J. (Sept. 7, 2009)

Corruption: Spurring China to Engage in International Law, CHINA RIGHTS FORUM, No. 1 (2009)

Law's Repeal Raises Bar for Beijing, S. CHINA MORNING POST, Jan. 24, 2009, at A11 (with Jerome A. Cohen)

Mutual Legal Assistance and Extradition: Human Rights Implications, CHINA RIGHTS FORUM, No. 2 (2007)

TRANSLATIONS

Co-translator, Republic of China, Judicial Yuan, Interpretation No. 708, Feb. 6, 2013

Co-translator, Republic of China, Judicial Yuan, Interpretation No. 636, Feb. 1, 2008

SELECTED PRESENTATIONS AND CONFERENCES

Lessons for China: How Taiwan Curbed Arbitrary Police Power – North American Taiwan Studies Association Annual Conference, University of California, Santa Barbara (June 2013)

The End of Reeducation Through Labor? Recent Developments and Prospects for Reform (Panelist) – Congressional Executive Commission Roundtable, Washington, DC (May 2013)

Where is Criminal Law in China's Law and Development Debate? – Reading Group on Chinese Law, Columbia Law School (April 2013)

How Taiwan Abolished Its Version of Reeducation Through Labor – Criminal Justice in China and Taiwan Today, Eighteenth Annual Timothy A. Gelatt Dialogue on Law and Development in Asia, NYU School of Law (April 2013)

Technical Investigations in the United States – Symposiums on China’s Revised Criminal Procedure Law, Chongqing University College of Law, Sichuan University School of Law, and Northwest University of Politics and Law, Xi’an (May 2012)

Criminal Law, Economic Growth, and China’s Search for Stability – Workshop on Works-in-Progress on Chinese Law, Center for Chinese Legal Studies, Columbia Law School (May 2012)

Presuming Innocence, or Corruption, in China – Faculty Colloquium, Case Western Reserve University School of Law (February 2012)

Sentencing in Capital Cases in China and the United States (Panelist) – Evidence Law Research Institute, Northwest University of Politics and Law, Xi’an (December 2011)

Chinese Criminal Procedure Law Reform: What it Means for Defense Lawyers, The Procuratorate, and Evidence Heard at Trial (Panelist) – Science of Criminal Law Institute, Beijing Normal University, Zhuhai Campus (December 2011)

Conference on Human Rights Development in China, Hong Kong, and Taiwan (Panelist) – Taipei Bar Association and Taiwan Association for Human Rights, Taipei (December 2011)

Criminal Justice in China: An Empirical Inquiry (Discussant) – John Jay College of Criminal Justice, New York (November 2011)

China’s Quest for Justice: Law and Legal Institutions since the Empire’s Collapse (Panelist) – Seventeenth Annual Timothy A. Gelatt Dialogue on Law and Development in Asia, NYU School of Law (November 2011)

Human Rights and the Rule of Law – China Town Hall, National Committee on United States-China Relations, Cranford, New Jersey (November 2011)

On Becoming a Lawyer (Keynote Speaker) – Seton Hall University School of Law Orientation (August 2011)

Current Conditions for Human Rights Defenders and Lawyers in China, and Implications for U.S. Policy (Panelist) – Congressional Executive Commission Roundtable, Washington, DC (June 2011)

Prosecuting Corruption and the Presumption of Innocence – Criminal Justice in China: Comparative Perspectives, Centre for Rights and Justice, Faculty of Law, Chinese University of Hong Kong (May 2011)

Review and Suggestions for Taiwan’s Criminal Procedure Reform – Judicial Yuan, Taipei (May 2011)

The Role of Law in China’s Strained “Harmonious Society” – Oregon World Affairs Council (co-sponsored by the Northwest China Council and University of Oregon), Portland, Oregon (February 2011)

Second Sino-American Dialogue on the Rule of Law and Human Rights (Dialogue Participant) – National Committee on United States-China Relations, Beijing and Xiamen (December 2010)

China and the Law of the Sea: Theory and Practice (Commentator) – The Winston Lord Roundtable on Asia, the Rule of Law, and U.S. Foreign Policy, Council on Foreign Relations, New York (October 2010)

The Exclusionary Rule in China – Workshop on Chinese Legal Reform, Yale Law School (October 2010)

Law and Taiwan’s Democratic Development (Commentator) – The Winston Lord Roundtable on Asia, the Rule of Law, and U.S. Foreign Policy, Council on Foreign Relations, New York (September 2010)

Criminal Justice Reform in China – Faculty Colloquium, University of Tennessee College of Law (September 2010)

Let a Hundred Flowers Bloom: A Round Table on China’s Legal System Celebrating the 80th Birthday of Jerome A. Cohen (Panelist) – NYU School of Law (September 2010)

Prosecutors in the United States: The Challenges of Federalism and Discretion – Taiwan National University, Taipei (June 2010)

The Comparative Study of East Asian Criminal Penalty Systems (Panelist) – NYU School of Law & Beijing Normal University School of Law, Beijing (May 2010)

The Exclusionary Rule in a State of Flux: China, Taiwan, and the United States – Colloquium on Chinese Law and Society, Columbia University (April 2010)

Developments in Criminal Justice in China – Faculty Colloquium, Marquette University Law School, Milwaukee (April 2010)

Democratizing Democracy: Politics of Social Movements in Contemporary Taiwan (Commentator) – Association for Asian Studies Annual Meeting, Philadelphia (March 2010)

Inaugural Sino-American Dialogue on the Rule of Law and Human Rights (Dialogue Participant) – National Committee on United States-China Relations, Nantong, China (December 2009)

The Enduring Importance of Police Repression: “Laojiao,” the Rule of Law and Taiwan’s Alternative Evolution – The Impact of the 1989 Pro-Democracy Movement and its Repression on the Evolution of the Politics, Economy, and International Relations of the PRC, City University, Hong Kong (June 2009)

Plea Bargaining: A Worldwide Trend Comes to China? – Renmin University School of Law, Beijing (March 2009)

Learning From the American System of Pre-trial Detention – Taiwan National University, Taipei (December 2008)

China’s Re-education Through Labor and Taiwan’s Technical Training Institutions – Timothy A. Gelatt Dialogue on Law and Development in Asia, NYU School of Law (October 2008)

China and the Future of the United Nations Convention against Corruption: The Unresolved Challenge of Implementation – Inaugural Asian Society of International Law Young Scholars Workshop, National University of Singapore (September 2008) (by invitation through competitive selection of 15 abstracts from over 300 submissions)

Taiwan’s Criminal Justice Revolution and Continuing Reforms – Goldstock Criminal Law Seminar, NYU School of Law (April 2008)

China’s Implementation of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime – International Conference on Organized Crime in Asia, National University of Singapore (June 2007)

FELLOWSHIP EXPERIENCE

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, U.S.–ASIA LAW INSTITUTE, New York, New York
Senior Research Fellow, 2008-2009, Research Fellow, 2005-2007

Executed a multi-year project to improve procedural safeguards in death penalty cases in China while concurrently researching China’s broader reform path. Worked closely with Professor Jerome A. Cohen on comparative projects between Taiwan and Mainland China. Organized training sessions and conferences for defense lawyers, judges, and prosecutors in China and the United States. Team taught classes with Professor Cohen on international law, law & society in China, and resolving business disputes. Wrote government and private grant applications, with successful applications totaling over U.S.$1 million.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE ON UNITED STATES–CHINA RELATIONS, New York, New York
Public Intellectuals Program Fellow, 2008-2011

Selected as one of twenty fellows to participate in a two-and-a-half year program aimed at nurturing a new generation of China specialists who, in the tradition of earlier China experts, have the interest and potential to venture outside of academia and play significant roles as public intellectuals. Program activities included participating in a series of meetings in the United States and China, organizing a public education program, and accompanying National Committee-sponsored delegations.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, New York, New York
Furman Fellow, 2007-2008

Awarded competitive fellowship to spend a year in residence at the law school researching comparative law and criminal justice. Research focused on the introduction of an adversarial criminal justice system and related reforms to Taiwan and Mainland China.

UNITED NATIONS, INTERNATIONAL LAW COMMISSION, Geneva, Switzerland

Student Fellow, Summer 2001

Assisted Bruno Simma, then Director of the Institute of International Law at the University of Munich, with research at the International Law Commission's annual session at the United Nations' European headquarters.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

JUDGE M. MARGARET MCKEOWN, UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE NINTH CIRCUIT,

San Diego, California

Law Clerk, 2004-2005

Drafted bench memoranda, orders, and opinions for federal appellate judge.

CLEARY, GOTTLIEB, STEEN & HAMILTON LLP, New York, New York & Hong Kong, China

Associate, 2003-2004, Summer Associate, 2002

Participated in a variety of corporate transactions focused on capital markets and mergers & acquisitions, including drafting a prospectus for exchangeable bonds and assistance with a simultaneous debt-equity offering. Worked on pro bono asylum and domestic violence cases.

COUDERT BROTHERS LLP, Beijing, China

Legal Assistant, 1998-2000

Assisted with transactions involving Chinese companies and foreign companies investing in China at the first foreign law firm to obtain an official license in China in the post-Mao era. Translated Chinese regulations into English and conducted legal research. Drafted speeches for presentation at conferences and articles for publication in professional journals such as China Law & Practice.

SELECTED MEDIA QUOTES AND APPEARANCES

BBC World Service, NBCNews.com, Los Angeles Times, Agence France-Presse, Voice of America, China Radio International, GBTimes, The Diplomat (blog), China Law & Policy (blog)

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

Manuscript and book prospectus reviews for Columbia University Press, Stanford Law Review, China Perspectives, Journal of Current Chinese Affairs, and International Journal of Comparative and Applied Criminal Justice

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Council on Foreign Relations (Term Member)

National Committee on United States-China Relations

American Friends of Bucerius (Board Member of organization supporting Bucerius Law School, Hamburg, Germany)

Bar Membership: New York State