

SETON HALL | LAW

Healthcare Compliance
Certificate Program

Ping An

Of Counsel

Covington & Burling LLP (Shanghai)

pan@cov.com

Ping An defends government enforcement actions and handles internal investigations into corporate misconduct on behalf of multinational corporations operating in China and other jurisdictions in Asia, as well as advises on the creation and implementation of corporate compliance programs.

Ping has provided regular FCPA and anti-corruption advice to multinationals during mergers and acquisitions, advised companies on compliance risks of proposed transactions, and assisted with revamping and upgrading internal controls and risk mitigation measures.

Ping has handled dozens of investigations for Fortune 500 companies in the pharmaceutical, medical device, technology, consulting, manufacturing, and consumer goods industries, including multi-jurisdictional FCPA investigations across different continents. He has particular expertise in handling investigations, risk assessments, third-party audits, and compliance advisory in the life sciences industry. With experience working with multiple top 20 global pharmaceutical companies, Ping has accumulated a considerable body of knowledge of life sciences companies' risk profiles in China.

Ping is natively bilingual in Mandarin Chinese and English, and has traveled to 28 cities in mainland China to conduct investigations and risk assessments, and make site visits.

He also manages cross-border litigation in U.S. courts. As a trial lawyer, Ping first-chaired a number of jury trials and binding arbitrations in California.

Education

Vanderbilt University, J.D.

Environmental Law and Policy Annual Review, Articles Editor

Certified Mediator

University of California, San Diego, B.A.

Eleanor Roosevelt College Provost's Honor

Bar Admissions

California