Robin Singh
Compliance and Ethics Lead
Healthcare Government Entity (Abu Dhabi)

A recognized subject matter expert in the field of healthcare ethics, compliance, and fraud investigations, Robin Singh is experienced in strategically navigating Fortune 500 companies and governments through ethical and regulatory scenarios/dilemmas. He has developed client adaptive programs on ethics and compliance and anti-bribery/anti-fraud framework during his tenure with Deloitte and Protiviti. He has worked across regions including UAE, Kuwait, Oman, Afghanistan, Singapore, and India.

Mr. Singh is currently the lead for SEHA, a health system operated by the government of Abu Dhabi, where he looks into the area of ethics, regulatory compliance programs, and fraud and corruption investigations. He has worked across jurisdictions such as Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Kuwait, Oman, Singapore, and India, and even high-risk jurisdictions such as Afghanistan.

Mr. Singh completed his Master of Studies in Law from Northwestern School of Law, Masters in IT from Virginia Tech, and Masters in Business Administration from SP Jain Mumbai, and holds other credentials such as Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE), Healthcare Compliance Certificate Program (HCCP), and Certified Compliance and Ethics Professional (CCEP-I).

Mr. Singh has been awarded the "Top 50 Smart Leaders" award across the Middle East in Risk, Ethics, and Compliance, and the "40 Under Forty" award by the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts. He has authored numerous papers/articles across various international journal and magazines such as Thomson Reuters, Fraud Magazine by ACFE, Society of Corporate Compliance and Ethics, Healthcare Compliance Today, Law360, and Asia Mena Counsel.