

Marc Comella, Vice President & Chief Compliance Officer, Mohegan Gaming & Entertainment

mcomella@mohegangaming.com

Marc Comella is an accomplished compliance professional with over 20 years of experience navigating evolving business landscapes. Known for driving a culture of ethics, integrity, and accountability, he has a proven track record in leading compliance functions.

As Mohegan's Chief Compliance Officer (CCO), Marc Comella oversees the creation and implementation of a cost-effective and efficient compliance program. Leading a skilled team, he encourages collaboration for proactive risk management and adherence to legal and regulatory requirements.

Throughout his career, Marc Comella has shown strong leadership, leading the design and execution of compliance strategies aligned with the organization's goals. He has a deep understanding of the gaming industry, staying updated on regulatory changes, best practices, and emerging compliance trends.

Marc Comella builds strong connections with teams, ensuring everyone works together on compliance. As an advisor to executives, he's committed to creating a culture of compliance, supporting growth, and protecting Mohegan's reputation as a responsible industry leader.