

Seton Hall Law School
Fourth Annual Regional Health Law Works-in-Progress Retreat

10:00-10:15: Welcome and Introductions

10:15-11:15: Jessica Roberts (University of Houston Law Center), “Genetic Duties”

Commentators: Allison K. Hoffman (University of Pennsylvania School of Law), Sonia Suter (George Washington University Law School)

11:20-12:20: Kristen Underhill (Columbia Law School), “Conditions as Signals: The Expressive Content of Medicaid Work Requirements”

Commentators: Nicole Huberfeld (Boston University School of Law), William M. Sage (University of Texas School of Law)

12:20-1:20: Lunch

1:20-2:20: Sharon Bassan (DePaul University College of Law), “Commodification of Data—Genetic Information Case Study”

Commentators: Gaia Bernstein (Seton Hall Law School), Robert I. Field (Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law)

2:25-3:25: Myrisha Lewis (William & Mary Law School), “The Coming Age of Germline Gene Editing: Medical Promise, Regulation, and the Revival of Decades of Debate”

Commentators: I. Glenn Cohen (Harvard Law School), Lewis Grossman (American University Washington College of Law)

3:30-4:30: Christina Ho (Rutgers Law School), “A Health Right by Any Other Name: Reconstructing an American Right to Health”

Commentators: John Jacobi (Seton Hall Law School), Alicia Ely Yamin (Harvard Law School)

5:00: Dinner at Maize Restaurant, 50 Park Place, Newark