Lisa LeCointe-Cephas manages a team of lawyers around the world who are responsible for conducting internal investigations related to breaches of Merck’s policies, the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, international anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws, and False Claims Act cases. Her team also leads the company’s response to government and regulatory proceedings around the world. She provides counsel to the company with respect to cybersecurity threats and data loss protection, and proudly serves as an international pro-bono coordinator for Merck.

Ms. LeCointe-Cephas joined Merck in February 2018 from Bristol-Myers Squibb Corp. (“BMS”), where she served as the lead Government Investigations counsel. Prior to BMS, she was a partner in the Government Investigations and White-Collar Defense practice of Kirkland & Ellis LLP, New York.

Ms. LeCointe-Cephas received her B.A. from Yale University and received her J.D. from Columbia Law School.
