Dan is presently the Vice President of Prevention in the US for EPIC Risk Management after serving as the Assistant Executive Director for the Council on Compulsive Gambling of New Jersey, better known as 800-GAMBLER. Upon graduating from The College of New Jersey with a major in Finance and a concentration in Economics, he spent 12-years in the world of Investment Banking, Risk Management, and Financial Planning. Despite the successful career, Dan had also been suffering in silence with a gambling disorder since high school. Having lived experience with gambling addiction, coupled with the traumatic events of September 11th, 2001, Dan eventually left the world of finance so he could heal personally and be a help to others who suffer from or are at risk to develop gambling problems. Dan has worked with stakeholders in over 30 states and has delivered hundreds of workshops, trainings, and keynote presentations around the country centered on prevention, education, and emerging trends in the world of gaming and gambling. He also has appeared on numerous podcasts and co-hosts a 30 minute podcast and weekly radio show across the country called, “Hello My Name Is Craig” with fellow gambler in recovery and top radio show host for sports radio in the NYC area market, Craig Carton. Dan is engaged to be married in May 2023 and has 3 children.
