Jaimee Reid

Sr. Director, Legal Compliance
Intercept Pharmaceuticals, Inc.

Jaimee Reid is an attorney with over fifteen years of legal and compliance experience in the life science industry. She focuses on compliance and regulatory matters in the areas of manufacturing and marketing of new products, including investigational and marketed product applications, risk management and assessment, and corporate compliance issues. At Intercept Pharmaceuticals, Inc. she is responsible for developing and executing the compliance program, identifying fraud and abuse issues, and executing internal investigations. She is the primary business partner for the U.S. Commercial, U.S. Medical, and the Global Clinical team. She also established and manages the Global Transparency Program and Third Party Due Diligence Risk Management Program.

Jaimee previously worked at Par Pharmaceutical, Inc. where she managed their Corporate Integrity Agreement (CIA) and the relationship with the Independent Review Organization (IRO). In addition, she was the Brand Attorney for four products and supported two launches. Prior to that, she helped pharmaceutical, biotech, and medical device companies identify and mitigate compliance risk through her work with in-house legal counsel, corporate compliance officers, senior operations professionals, and outside legal counsel who support these professionals.

She holds a LL.M. in Health Law from Saint Louis University School of Law and a J.D. for the University of Tulsa College of Law. She is also in good standing with the State Bar of California, the State Bar of Missouri, the New Jersey State Bar, and the New York State Bar.
