

John T. Wolak

Director, Commercial & Criminal Litigation

Gibbons

Mr. Wolak chairs the firm's Privacy & Data Security Team and has extensive experience with a broad range of privacy and security issues. He regularly provides advice and counsel on compliance with the ever-evolving local, national, and global regulatory regimes; leads incident/breach response investigations and post-event activities; develops and implements written privacy and security policies; and completes privacy and security assessments. In addition, Mr. Wolak assists clients with cyber insurance coverage, policies, and endorsements; best practices to mitigate cyber risks and exposures; due diligence for regulatory compliance; and data security training for employees.

Mr. Wolak also has extensive experience representing clients on insurance coverage matters. He has been named an "Insurance Lawyer of the Year" (Newark, NJ) by Best Lawyers® and selected for the New Jersey Super Lawyers list for Insurance Law. For more than 25 years, he has litigated matters involving hundreds of millions of dollars in insurance coverage for a broad range of clients and regularly provides strategic counseling and analysis of potential risks and exposures, policy terms and conditions, and claims resolution.
