Ken Chia is a member of the firm's IP Tech, International Commercial Trade, and Competition Practice Groups. He is regularly ranked as a leading TMT and competition lawyer by top legal directories, including Chambers Asia Pacific and Legal 500 Asia Pacific. He is an IAPP Certified International Privacy Professional (FIP, CIPP(A), CIPT, CIPM) and a fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and the Singapore Institute of Arbitrators.

Mr. Chia has more than thirty years of experience practicing in the areas of IT, telecommunications, intellectual property, trade and commerce, and competition law matters. He routinely assists clients, mostly governments and multinational corporations, in large-scale procurement, outsourcing, and regional transactions, and provides sound advice on privacy and e-commerce matters.

Mr. Chia's representative legal matters include advising a biopharmaceutical company on government pricing requirements related to its participation in a vaccine tender and advising on several data breach cases in Singapore, including three that are now reported decisions.

Mr. Chia attended Cambridge University, College of Law at Guildford, and Stirling University.
