

SETON HALL | LAW

Healthcare Compliance
Certificate Program

Lee Cortes

Executive Assistant United States Attorney
U.S. Attorney's Office, District of New Jersey

Lee Cortes is the Executive Assistant United States Attorney at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey. Before his promotion to the Front Office in March 2022, Lee served as the Chief of the Health Care Fraud Unit for over two years, overseeing the Office's criminal and civil investigations and prosecutions of health care fraud offenses. Before Lee was promoted to that role, he served as the Deputy Chief of the Special Prosecutions Division, where he oversaw public corruption matters. Before becoming a supervisor, Lee was a line assistant in the General Crimes Unit in 2010 and in the Special Prosecutions Division from 2011 until 2017. Prior to joining the U.S. Attorney's Office, Lee worked at a New York law firm, focusing on white collar defense, life sciences, products liability, and commercial litigation. Lee graduated from King's College and Fordham Law School.