Shu Min Ho is a member of the firm's White Collar: Government Litigation & Investigations Group. Her practice focuses on internal investigations and compliance counselling, and she has handled a wide spectrum of complex litigation and regulatory investigations.

Ms. Ho has particular experience in cross-border investigations in the pharmaceutical and medical device sectors, with a focus on bribery, corruption, and money laundering issues. She has recently led investigations in the UK, Hungary, Turkey, Israel, Egypt, and China.

Ms. Ho is fluent in English and Mandarin. Prior to joining Sidley, she practiced at a leading UK law firm.

Ms. Ho's representative experience includes advising a global health care company in the conduct of a cross-border internal investigation into financial and workplace misconduct and potential bribery allegations in relation to its APAC division, and advising a multinational pharmaceutical company in its investigations involving possible violations of the anti-bribery and books-and-records provisions of the FCPA and other compliance violations.
