

Susan J. Flynn-Hollander, Esq.

General Counsel and VP, Regulatory Affairs and Chief Compliance Officer

New Jersey Innovation Institute, Inc. a NJIT Corporation

Initially recruited to join NJII to facilitate Privacy Officer duties relative to the company's management of the New Jersey Department of Health, New Jersey Health Information Network (NJHIN); thereafter joining a new Senior Management Team as General Counsel, with responsibilities for Legal, Compliance, Insurance, Grant Management, Privacy and Data Protection. Ms. Flynn-Hollander has been privileged to serve as GC of major healthcare facilities and systems and insurance companies; Chief Operating Officer of an 800+ bed hospital, and an IDS/insurance corporation; law firm partner/counsel; Compliance Program Director; and advisor to Hospitals, Institutes, Practice Management Groups, Physician Practices, Telemedicine & Pharma startups, medical and dental practices, medical device manufacturers, and Clinically Integrated Systems. A faculty presenter and panelist at AHLA events and regional law schools, Ms. Flynn-Hollander is pleased to return to Seton Hall University School of Law where she previously moderated the Healthcare Compliance Certification Programs. The humble recipient of Best 50 Women in Business (NJ BIZ), and Salute to the Policy Makers Award (EWNJ), she has been a finalist for the non-profit GC of the Year, and Honored by New York Law School's Spotlight on Women. Ms. Flynn-Hollander proudly serves as Trustee, Treasurer and Executive Committee Member for the New Jersey Health Foundation and Foundation Venture Capital, as well as Trustee of the New York Law School Alumni Board.