

Tammi Barlow, Director of Corporate Social Responsibility, Rush Street Interactive (RSI), L.P.

barlow@rushstreetinteractive.com

Tammi Barlow has over a decade of experience building and managing responsible gaming and corporate social responsibility programs for companies in the gaming industry.

As Director, Social Responsibility – she leads the development and execution of RSI's corporate social responsibility strategy, including the continued implementation of the Company's responsible gaming initiatives as well as promotion and expansion of the Company's diversity, equity, and inclusion and environmental, social, and governance efforts with internal and external stakeholders.

Tammi is a highly experienced executive with a demonstrated history of developing successful responsible gaming programs.

Prior to joining RSI, she served as Director of Responsible Gaming and Corporate Social Responsibility at Caesars Entertainment, Inc. following its acquisition of William Hill PLC. Before that, she was the Head of Responsible Gaming at William Hill PLC and Director of Responsible Gaming and Corporate Social Responsibility at William Hill US. Previously, she served as Manager of Responsible Gaming & Community Relations at International Game Technology (IGT).

Ms. Barlow's career in the gaming industry began as the Manager of Corporate Social Responsibility at Northstar Lottery Group, LLC. and then went on to work with IGT, one of the leading gaming vendors in the industry. In 2021, she served as a subject matter expert on Nevada Governor Steve Sisolak's Advisory Committee on Problem Gambling. Prior to working in gaming, Ms. Barlow worked in health and human services for 13 years with a focus on international development.

Tammi Barlow is currently Chairwoman of the Responsible Gaming Committee for the National Council on Problem Gambling, co-Chairwoman of the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Committee for Global Gaming Women, a Board member for the Massachusetts Council on Gaming and Health.