Wilson Ang is a dispute resolution lawyer based in Singapore. He heads the Asia regulatory investigations and compliance practice.

Mr. Ang focuses on conducting internal investigations on business ethics and anti-corruption matters, often involving the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, the UK Bribery Act, the Singapore Prevention of Corruption Act, and regional anti-bribery laws. He advises on risk management, remediation measures, and follow-on disputes. He has extensive experience designing and implementing compliance programs, conducting anti-corruption due diligence reviews, and handling complex and sensitive issues involving bribery, fraud, sanctions, money-laundering/terrorist-financing, cyber-security competition law, and financial services regulatory violations in the Asia-Pacific. He is a certified auditor for ISO37001: Anti-Bribery Management Systems.

Mr. Ang qualified as an Advocate and Solicitor in Singapore, was admitted to the Solicitors' Roll of England and Wales, and qualified as a Solicitor in Hong Kong. He became a Solicitor-Advocate and was awarded higher rights of audience in England and Wales. He has significant experience advising leading energy, transport and life sciences companies, major financial/banking institutions, as well as multinational corporations and Asian conglomerates. He counsels directors and senior management on corporate ethics and personal liability, and is on the faculty of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Mr. Ang was ranked Band 1 in the Corporate Investigations/Anti-Corruption Singapore category by Chambers & Partners from 2018-2020. He was recognized by Who's Who Legal: Investigations 2018-2020 as being among the world's leading Investigations Lawyers. He was named by Legal 500 as being experienced in regulatory compliance matters in the firm's Financial Services Regulatory practice, which was ranked Tier 1 from 2017-2020. In 2016, he was awarded the International Law Office's Client Choice Awards for the White Collar Crime category in Singapore—being the sole and first-ever winner for this award in Singapore. He was recommended by Legal 500 2016 as a "fraud and investigations expert" in a team with "wide-ranging sector knowledge in areas such as energy, infrastructure and transport." Global Investigations Review describes the investigations and compliance practice led by him as focusing on China, Indonesia, Singapore, and Hong Kong—as well as jurisdictions like Malaysia, Myanmar,
