WINTER SESSION CLASSES

There is a three-credit max on all Winter Session classes.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Students will be registering concurrently for both Winter Session and Spring classes. However, if you register for a Winter Session course, the credits will be included in your total Spring credits. This means that full or part-time students who enroll in a Winter Session class will be disallowed from enrolling for the maximum of 16 or 11 credits respectively for the Spring. Therefore, students who plan to take more than 11 credits if part-time, or 16 credits if full-time, for both the Winter Session and Spring semester combined, must email Jordan Braun at Jordan.braun@shu.edu the below Credit Overload Request at least 24 hours prior to registering. Once your request for a credit overload has been received, your maximum Spring credits will be adjusted to include the credits for the Winter Session.

Seats will be proportioned based on the number of students in each division (full-time day, part-time day, evening, and weekend) and the maximum number of seats set for the course.

There will only be a waiting list for the Winter Session of Persuasion and Advocacy course.

SPRING SEMESTER REGISTRATION INFORMATION

What's New?

Startup Counseling (CORP9140EM/EN)

3 credits. AWR Seminar. Pre-requisite: Business Associations

2 credits. Take-Home Exam

Professor Ilya Beylin

This course focuses on the legal issues young companies, particularly in the technology space, encounter. Topics that will be discussed include entity formation, obtaining financing from venture capitalists and angel investors (including standard documentation), securities law governing fundraising and equity awards to employees, and common provisions in customer facing agreements (including Terms of Service and Privacy Policies). This class will also delve into case studies of innovation to understand the interaction of law with evolving technologies and business practices, including cryptocurrencies, ride sharing, crowdfunding, and peer-to-peer lending. Reading will consist of a mix of public law, transactional documentation and secondary sources. Except with the instructor's permission, students must have taken business associations (and prior or concurrent enrollment in securities regulation and/or corporate finance would help).

Data Analytics (CORP8134EM)

2 credits. Lecture

Professor Jacob Elberg

This course will prepare students to practice in a legal environment increasingly reliant on data and data analysis. The course will begin with an introduction to basic statistics (using an inexpensive, popular book) and basic empirical techniques such as sampling and regression, and aim to arm students with the ability to conduct basic empirical analysis, and as importantly, to be able to understand the limits and potential issues surrounding the use of data, and learn how to challenge data-based arguments made by others. The course will also introduce students to various ways in which the use of data is changing the practice of law, including government investigations, corporate transactions, and document discovery and production. No knowledge of or background in mathematics is required or assumed. The course is aimed at preparing even math-phobic students to practice law in a rapidly changing world, to work in public policy, or simply to be better citizens.

Weekend Program

Children, Family, and the State (PRFM7002WV/WW)

Prof. Claudette L. St. Romain

2 credits. Lecture. Take-Home

3 credits. AWR Paper

This course examines the relationship between the state, parents, and children, and how the state creates, regulates, and terminates familial relationships. It analyzes the balance between parents' rights to make childrearing decisions and the state's responsibility to protect children. The course also explores the state's treatment of minors in various contexts, including the criminal justice system, contracts, health care, and education.

The class will be offered for 2 credits, open to day or weekend students. The course consists of 8 in-class meetings, 8 out-of-class projects, and a final exam. Of the out-of-class projects, 4 will be written and in the style of the Bar Exam Multistate Performance Test, and 4 will involve interactive skills. In addition, there will be a final exam.

Weekend students may instead take the class for 3 credits by substituting the final exam ONLY for an AWR. The class meetings and out-of-class assignments will still be required. The bulk of the AWR research will be completed during the spring semester. A detailed annotated outline will be due no later than June 1, 2020. A completed first version of the AWR will be due no later than July 6. The final version of the AWR will be due by August 10, 2020. A student who takes the class as a 3 credit AWR seminar will receive an "In Progress" grade at the end of the spring semester to be replaced by a letter grade upon completion of the final version of the AWR. If the final version does not satisfy the AWR standards, the student may continue to work on the paper to satisfy the AWR standard until November 2, 2020 semester.

Patent Claim Drafting, Application Preparation & Prosecution (INDL8320WO)

2 credits. Skills. Course is graded High Pass, Pass, Low Pass or Fail.

Professor Andrew Zidel

Online Course – Only Available to Weekend and Evening Students

This seminar incorporates both patent application drafting and prosecution of filed applications with the Patent and Trademark Office (PTO). Students will develop the writing and analytical skills required to draft applications for United States patents, including how to prepare the "claim" or "claims" appended to a patent specification. The claims define the scope of the grant, or the technical extent of the exclusive privilege the patent accords to its owner.

Students will also acquire patent prosecution techniques including evaluation of Office Actions received from the PTO and preparation of responses to the Office Actions, including drafting appellate briefs for submission to the PTO's Patent Trial and Appeal Board. Assignments will include skills-based work on claim drafting, application drafting, and preparation of prosecution-related documents.

NOTE: Students are required to have a degree in engineering or a physical science, or otherwise be capable of satisfying the requirements to practice before the PTO.

Spring Intersession (3-day course)

NITA DEPOSITION SKILLS PROGRAM

NITA Deposition Skills Program (PRMD9240EM)

1 credit. Skills.

Prerequisites: Persuasion and Advocacy and Evidence

The National Institute for Trial Advocacy (NITA) has developed a deposition program for practicing lawyers that is offered at numerous sites around the country. The program is being held at the Law School and has been scheduled for Friday, April 3 – Sunday, April 5, 2020. Prerequisites are Persuasion and Advocacy and Evidence. Students attend the same lectures as the CLE participants, but the Law School provides faculty to teach the students in their own sections during the breakaway sessions. There will be four sections and enrollment will be limited to 8 per section.

This course provides a strong framework for basic techniques of taking and defending depositions, and explores a variety of questioning methods. The result is that witnesses are encouraged to give expansive, exhaustive answers -- including other potential sources of information -- and that other potential avenues of escape are closed off. Students also learn to theory test on subjects of importance to the case. Students receive supportive, helpful suggestions on how to improve performance, utilizing frequent repetitions in the learning-by-doing method to help master new techniques. A portion of the program is also devoted to ethical considerations in deposition settings and witness preparation.

The final schedule for the program will be circulated a few weeks before the course. Students should make sure that they are available on Friday from approximately 1:00pm – 6:00pm, Saturday from 9:00am to 6:00pm, and Sunday from 8:30am to 4:00pm. Please contact Professor Borgen with any questions about the schedule.

Seats will be proportioned based on the number of students in each division (full-time day, part-time day, evening, and weekend students) and the maximum number of seats set for the course.

Enrollment is limited to a max of 32 students. A wait list will be maintained for the NITA program (see #6, page 14 for instructions on how to add your name to the wait list).

Course is graded High Pass, Pass, Low Pass or Fail.

Questions regarding the NITA Deposition Skills Program should be directed to Lori Borgen, Associate Director, Center for Social Justice.

OUTSTANDING TUITION BALANCE/FINANCIAL HOLDS

It is your responsibility to clear any unpaid balance with the Bursar's Office prior to registering through Banner Self-Service. Financial holds are automatically placed on your account regardless of the amount due. In addition, all monies must be received prior to the date of your registration, regardless of the source from which the tuition is being paid. If you have a current balance, you will be automatically blocked from registering for courses and will be referred to the Bursar's Office. This will result in having to restart the registration process (if cleared by the Bursar to register) and will reduce your chances of enrolling in your desired courses.

OTHER HOLDS

There are several types of holds which could affect your registration status, namely: bursar, academic, transcript, health services and financial aid. Prior to registration, it is recommended that you go online to check if you have any holds on your account. If one does exist, you should contact the appropriate department to resolve the hold. If you have any questions about a financial hold, please contact the Bursar's Office at 973-642-8385.

JD REQUIREMENTS

Please click on the above link to consult the curriculum chart for your division which lists the required courses and the semester in which they are scheduled to be taken.

COURSE REGISTRATION PROCEDURES*

1. All students registering for full-year courses are required to remain with the same professor during both semesters.
2. All students must register for required courses in the semester in which they are scheduled to be taken within the students' division, unless they receive written permission from the Associate Dean for Academics to defer a requirement.
3. Full-time students must register for the majority of their courses within their division unless prior written approval is received from the Associate Dean for Academics. Full-time students may register for electives offered in the evening, but do not receive priority for them.
4. Course sections beginning with the letters "A-L" are day courses and sections with the letters "M-Z" are evening/weekend courses. Course sections beginning with the letter "E" are available to both day and evening students. Not all courses offered before 6:05pm are available to evening students. Evening students should refer to the course section to determine eligibility for enrolling in any course scheduled during the day.
5. Course sections beginning with the letter "Z" are for MSJ students only.

*NOTE: The Law School schedules courses according to the availability of facilities and instructors. Not all courses and seminars are offered each year. Several courses may be offered only in alternate years. The Law School reserves the right to add, delete, or to change any course, or the credit for any course, at any time. Some courses, and all seminars, skills offerings and clinical programs have limited enrollments. As in other law schools, Seton Hall Law School cannot assure every student the opportunity to take every desired course.

Comparative Constitutional Law (INTL9606WS)

2 credits. Lecture.

Professor Michael Coenen

Pre-requisite: Constitutional Law (LAW6015, LAW6011, & LAW6012)

This course will survey varying approaches to the creation, interpretation, and enforcement of constitutional law. Much of the course will focus on big-picture questions of constitutional design, covering such topics as the difference between “written” and “unwritten” constitutions, formal and informal mechanisms of constitutional change, the forms and models of judicial review, and methodologies of constitutional interpretation. We will also spend some time discussing issues of substantive constitutional law, such as the allocation of authority between national and subnational governments and the relationship between individual rights and democratic politics. The central objective of the course will be to examine longstanding problems of constitutional theory through a comparative lens, highlighting and evaluating the different ways in which different jurisdictions have confronted these problems over time.

Evaluation will be by in-class exam.

Class Dates: Tuesday, January 7 (10:30am – 12:30pm and 1:30pm – 3:30pm)
Wednesday, January 8 (10:30am – 12:30pm and 1:30pm – 3:30pm)

Monday, January 13 (10:30am – 12:30pm and 1:30pm – 3:30pm)
Tuesday, January 14 (10:30am – 12:30pm and 1:30pm – 3:30pm)

Questions on the above course may be directed to Professor Michael Coenen at michael.coenen@shu.edu.

PASS/D OR FAIL OPTION POLICY

Once during a student's last four semesters, he or she may opt to take an elective course (excluding clinics) on a Pass/ D or Fail option. It is entirely up to the professor teaching the course whether he or she chooses to make this option available, and if so, may only be up to a maximum of 20% of the class. The Assistant Dean for Academic Services will determine if more students request the Pass/D or Fail option than there are seats, which students are permitted to take any course Pass/D or Fail. No student may take an AWR course using this option if he or she needs AWR certification for the graduation requirement. Courses that are offered with the option of Pass/D or Fail are noted in the schedule of classes enclosed in this handbook. A course that is only offered on a Pass/D or Fail basis shall not count as the "one elective" that may be taken on a Pass/D or Fail basis. To apply to take a course that is being offered with this option, you must submit the Pass/D or Fail Option Form for Elective Courses.

FILING DEADLINES

The below filing deadlines will be strictly adhered to:

Early Filing Deadline: Friday, December 6

Late Filing Deadline: Friday, January 10

EXAMINATIONS

Final examinations will not be scheduled until after the Drop/Add period. Students who have an exam conflict can then request a rescheduling of an examination based on the Law School's Conflict Policy. The exam schedule will be posted on our website by the week of February 17th. Please be aware that elective courses scheduled to meet during the day (all weekday classes commencing before 6:00 p.m.) may have an exam administered in any time slot during the exam period.

CREDIT LOAD

A full-time student is required to register for a minimum of 12 credits with a maximum of 16 credits. This limitation applies to joint degree candidates as well. A part-time student is required to register for a minimum of eight credits with a maximum of 11 credits. No student on probation will be permitted to register for courses in excess of the maximum set forth in his/her letter of probation.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT

All students must meet the law school's residency requirements in order to be certified for graduation. A full-time student must be in residence for at least six semesters with a minimum of 10 credits each semester and a part-time student must be in residence for at least eight semesters with a minimum of eight credits each semester. Any student who has changed divisions or is seeking to graduate a semester early must check with the Assistant Dean for Academic Services in order to insure compliance with this requirement.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS/PREREQUISITES

ADVISORS

There will be a number of faculty members and administrators who are available for advisement during registration. Please feel free to contact any advisor on the list for an appointment to discuss your schedule.

DROP/ADD PROCEDURES

The Drop/Add period consists of the first week of classes — Tuesday, January 21 – Sunday, January 26. No student will be permitted to drop/add after the first week of classes, nor will any student receive academic credit that is not officially registered by Monday, January 27.

WAIT LISTS

Wait lists will ONLY be available for Persuasion and Advocacy and the NITA Program. If a course is closed at the time of your registration, it is highly recommended that you should periodically check online for seat availability during Open Registration (1/13 – 1/5).

COURSE WITHDRAWAL

A student is permitted to withdraw from a course up until the day of the scheduled examination, or if self-scheduled, the last day of examinations. In the case of a seminar, a student may withdraw up to the day in which the paper is due. However, no student may attempt more than 95 credits of academic work, including retaken courses. A course from which a student withdraws with the approval of the Associate Dean for Academics does not count as an attempted course. Notwithstanding the above, any student who is involuntarily withdrawn or who withdraws, with or without approval, from more than 20 credits will be automatically dismissed. A student withdrawing from any course, including externships, journals, clinics, moot court or Independent Research will receive a grade of "WD" (Withdrawal).

COURSE CANCELLATIONS

Students will be notified by phone or e-mail in the event a course is cancelled.

MAY 2020 DEGREE APPLICATION

All JD candidates who intend to complete degree requirements after the Spring 2020 semester, must file the online Graduation Application form with the Office of Enrolment Services. Applications must be received by Monday, January 27. Failure to file this application may result in the student's graduation date being the next available date after the succeeding semester.

Members/editors should register for journal credit based on their below journal status.

- New journal members register for a one credit member for both the fall and spring semesters.

It is the student's responsibility to insure that the completed form is returned to the Office of Enrollment Services before the end of the Drop/Add period.

THE LEGAL PRACTICE CURRICULUM

The Legal Practice Curriculum offers students rigorous training in the skills needed to practice law. The classes utilize simulation exercises where students are required to engage in real lawyering tasks such as advocating for a client at trial, drafting a legal brief or contract, and mediating a dispute. These courses have limited enrollment (generally 8-12 students per section), thereby allowing significant interaction with and feedback from faculty. Many of these classes are taught by adjunct professors who are experts in the area. For example, federal judges and experienced trial lawyers teach many of the litigation skills courses.

REQUIRED COURSES

Each law student is required to take three legal practice courses prior to graduation.

1. Introduction to Lawyering (LAW5050-51)
2. Appellate Advocacy (MTCT7151)
3. Persuasion and Advocacy (PRMD8210)

Introduction to Lawyering

The Introduction to Lawyering course will introduce students to the fundamental skills employed by lawyers across various practice areas and will develop within students the habits of thoughtful, reflective, and ethical professional practice. Lawyering sections will be small, and students will often work collaboratively in teams on projects; thus, providing a collegial intimate academic setting.

Appellate Advocacy

Appellate Advocacy is a two-credit required course that meets once a week in sections of no more than 16 students. Each section will be taught by an instructor with the assistance of a member of the Moot Court Board, who will focus on brief writing skills, advocacy strategy and oral argument skills.

Students receive a letter grade for the course, based upon completion of an appellate brief, a final round of oral argument, and participation in class and conferences. Students will prepare drafts and a final brief on a one-issue moot court problem, present several practice rounds of oral argument and one graded round, and meet in individual conferences with the instructor.

Students must register for Appellate Advocacy during their second year. New law journal members are advised to wait until Fall semester to register for Appellate Advocacy. This sequence allows the maximum opportunity for students to participate in the Gressman Competition, the Interscholastic Moot Court Board and the Appellate Advocacy Moot Court Board. This traditional sequence also affords students maximum flexibility in completing the AWR requirement, course selection, clinical participation, and other academic/co-curricular activities.

Persuasion and Advocacy

Persuasion and Advocacy teaches students the art of persuasion. While the course uses the context of a courtroom, the skills developed are applicable across the spectrum of legal work, whether in corporate negotiations, zoning board presentations, or appellate arguments. The exercises and simulations focus on the integration of storytelling and thematic development into the basic skills of direct examination, cross-examination, opening statements, and closing arguments. This is a highly participatory course, and students will be asked to participate in drills and simulations in every class.

In addition to the sections of Persuasion and Advocacy offered in the Spring 2020, multiple sections of the course will also be offered in the 2020 Winter Session for those students who are interested in taking the course in an accelerated full-day setting.

ADVANCED LEGAL PRACTICE COURSES

The law school offers an advanced number of legal practice courses where students can further exercise and improve their lawyering skills in specialized areas such as litigation, alternative dispute resolution, and transactional practice. For the Spring 2020 semester, the following advanced legal practice courses will be offered:

1. Advanced Civil Practice (PRMD9218)
2. Advanced Civil Practice: The Simulated Law Firm (PRMD9220)

ADDITIONAL LEGAL PRACTICE OFFERINGS

Eugene Gressman Appellate Moot Court Competition

The Eugene Gressman Moot Court Competition is an elective course for second year day, third year day, and third and fourth year evening students who have received a passing grade in Appellate Advocacy or are taking Appellate Advocacy as a co-requisite. It is a one credit class, graded on a Pass/D or Fail basis. Participants must be available on all competition dates (for the Compulsory Round students will be assigned a Saturday to argue and religious observance will be accommodated). Course credit is granted upon submission of an acceptable brief and participation in all rounds until eliminated. Participants will meet as a class once during the entire semester; it is scheduled for Wednesday, January 22, at 12:30 p.m., in the auditorium. Attendance is mandatory.

All participants in the Gressman Competition receive the same problem written by the Gressman Competition Director and his/her team. The problem addresses a current legal issue not yet resolved by the United States Supreme Court. The problem will be released to participating students via Blackboard during the first week of January 2020 to allow students approximately one month to complete their brief—perhaps even before the semester begins. During the one and only class meeting, participants will be able to ask questions and the rules of the Competition will be reviewed. Additionally, during this meeting, participants will provide their class schedules in order to accommodate conflicts in scheduling oral argument times beyond the Compulsory Round. Participants will not be competing in teams.

The Final Night of the Gressman Competition is presided over by esteemed judges of the Third Circuit and the District of New Jersey. Last year's judges were The Honorable Theodore A. McKee, Third Circuit; The Honorable Katharine S. Hayden, U.S. District Court, District of New Jersey; and The Honorable Brian R. Martinotti, U.S. District Court, District of New Jersey Awards are given to the winner and runner-up of the Competition. Best Brief and Best Oral Advocate awards are given as well. Please note that participation in the Gressman Competition is highly recommended to students interested in applying for a position on the Appellate Advocacy Moot Court Board, which writes the problems for the Appellate Advocacy classes and the Gressman Competition for academic credit. Additionally, students who advance at least to the semifinal round may be invited to join the Interscholastic Moot Court Program, which travels throughout the country to compete against other law schools in moot court competitions.

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE OF ARGUMENTS

Wednesday, February 26 - Round 2 (evening)

Wednesday, March 4 - Round 3 (evening)

Wednesday, March 18 - Round 4 (evening)

EXTERNSHIPS

Students can develop their practical skills in real lawyering contexts through the Externship Program. Seton Hall has a broad range of Externship placements in nearly 200 not-for-profit and governmental organizations, with judges of approved courts, and with select entertainment organizations. The Externship Program provides students the opportunity to obtain academic credit for interning with approved organizations, provided all requirements are met.

ADVANCED WRITING REQUIREMENT

All students are required to fulfill a substantial writing requirement for graduation. The following courses offered will fulfill this requirement. The courses listed are the only courses offered during the Spring 2020 semester which will fulfill the Advanced Writing Requirement.

COURSE	PROFESSOR
Children, Family & the State (weekend only)	St. Romain
Expert Witnesses	Denbeaux
Gender and the Law	Maldonado
HealthCare Fraud and Corruption	Elberg
Startup Counseling	Beylin
Int'l Criminal Justice and Human Rights at the Hague (Spring Break)	Hafetz

NOTE: Students who enroll in the above courses must meet AWR standards even if they do not need AWR certification.

For all papers which are intended to satisfy the Advanced Writing Requirement, the professor must agree that the topic is appropriate for advanced legal writing credit. After completion of the paper, the professor must certify to the Assistant Dean for Academic Services that the paper satisfies the Advanced Writing Requirement. At the option of the professor, this certification may be based on revisions which are made after the student has received a final grade in the seminar. Revisions made after the conclusion of the seminar shall not result in any change in the final grade.

The following also qualify for the Advanced Writing Requirement:

Students may receive AWR certification for comments written for any of the three journals: Law Review, Legislative Journal and Circuit Review. The faculty member supervising the comment must certify that the comment satisfies the AWR requirement as specified on our website.

CURRICULUM PLANNING

Persuasion and Advocacy is a prerequisite for the advanced litigation and transactional legal practice courses, and students who are interested in further developing their skills for legal practice should take Persuasion and Advocacy early enough in their law school career to allow room for these advanced courses. To enroll in Advanced Civil Practice and Advanced Criminal Practice, students must also have completed Evidence course. Advanced Civil Practice or Advanced Criminal Practice is a prerequisite for either Trial of a Civil Matter or Trial of a Criminal Case.

To enroll in most clinical courses, students must first complete courses in Persuasion and Advocacy, Evidence, and Professional Responsibility.

Some legal practice courses are only offered once per year, while others may be offered only in alternating years. Thus, students should plan ahead for legal practice courses. In addition, other advanced legal practice courses may be added to the curriculum in future semesters.

LIMIT ON LEGAL PRACTICE AND SELF-DIRECTED WORK CREDITS

No more than 15 credits of legal practice and self-directed work credits shall count towards graduation. This would include legal practice courses (excluding Persuasion and Advocacy), externships, moot court (excluding Appellate Advocacy), Independent Research, and clinics (non-classroom component only). Journal credits are not included in the limitation.

EQUIVALENCY COURSES

There are a number of courses which have substantial overlap in course coverage, and as a result, not all may be counted towards degree requirements.

CLASS ATTENDANCE POLICY

The Law School has a mandatory Class Attendance Policy which calls for students to attend a minimum of 75% of class sessions in a course or be administratively withdrawn from the course. No excused absences are permitted. An absence for any reason, including late registration, counts towards the maximum of 25% absences allowed.

A student that wishes to return to the Law School in the future must write to the Associate Dean for Academics to request a leave of absence. A student who does not officially withdraw and fails to sit for examinations will receive a grade of "F" in each course.
