Professor Katherine Roberts

Professor Roberts spent over a decade practicing law at Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP, where she specialized in securities litigation, complex tort litigation, bankruptcy, and enforcement actions. She worked on all aspects of case preparation, including appeals in the federal courts. While there, she also served in select roles relating to attorney professional development. Before joining the law firm, Professor Roberts clerked for the Honorable Michael B. Mukasey, Southern District of New York, and interned at the United State Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York, Criminal Division.

Professor Roberts earned her B.A. in Psychology from Cornell University and her J.D. from Yale Law School, where she was an editor of The Yale Law Journal and where she was published in The Yale Journal of Law and the Humanities. Prior to attending law school, Professor Roberts taught second grade in New York City.
