Professor Patricia A. Barbieri

Pat Barbieri has been a lawyer for over 35 years; she has a JD from Seton Hall University School of Law and is admitted to the NJ Bar. Pat earned a BA in Political Science from Montclair State University and an MPA from NYU. Throughout her career she represented pharmaceutical companies (both as outside and in-house counsel) and her last role, prior to retirement, was General Counsel for the U.S. arm of a Japanese pharmaceutical company. Pat served two terms as co-chair of the In-house Counsel Committee of the NJ State Bar Association and was Secretary/Member of the Executive Committee of the Health Care Institute of New Jersey (HINJ) for several years. Currently, she serves as an advisor to Fairleigh Dickinson University supporting efforts to re-establish the University's Paralegal Studies Certificate Program. Pat is also on the Editorial Board of the Corporate Counsel Committee of the American Bar Association.
