

Daniel Ranieri, Senior Regulatory Administrative Analyst, BetMGM

A diligent and hardworking attorney who consistently takes initiative through traditional and creative means to ensure positive results. Thrives in a fast-paced and collaborative work environment while possessing an unparalleled work ethic, passion, and knowledge, all while exuding positivity. Has extensive experience in the areas of civil litigation. Possess extensive knowledge and experience in business operations, contract negotiations, research, and analysis, as well as legal document preparation, editing, and management skills applied to various business matters, including drafting memoranda and motions, developing case strategies, and coordinating trial preparation. A collaborative communicator who interacts well with individuals at all levels while ensuring strict adherence to policy and procedure compliance. Demonstrated history of working in the alcoholic beverages and gaming industries.