Natasha Williams

Head of Compliance

Viatriis

Natasha is the Head of Compliance Europe at Viatriis, a global pharmaceutical and healthcare corporation, formed through the merger of Mylan and Upjohn (a legacy division of Pfizer). In this role, Natasha leads the design, operation, and continuous improvement of the compliance program for Viatriis' Developed Markets Europe businesses.

Before joining Viatriis, Natasha served as SVP of Privacy and Data Protection at Teleperformance (the worldwide leader in omni-channel customer experience management), where she developed, implemented, and managed the data privacy program in the UK & CEMEA region.

In addition, Natasha is a former Director of Global Litigation and Investigations at Sanofi where she designed the strategy for the processing and transfer of information for cross-border legal proceedings and investigations, in compliance with data protection laws and blocking statutes. She also served as the company's legal advisor to the Global Records Management Committee, where she was one of the primary contributors to the design and implementation of the global records and information management program.

Natasha is Co-Chair of the Medicines for Europe Code of Conduct Working Group and contributed to the revised version of the Code issued in February 2021.
