New & Updated Courses

The American Legal Tradition (HIPH9510AA)

Seminar. 2 Credits.

Honorable Paul Matey

This course examines the foundations of the American legal system and the principles that frame the judicial power. We will explore the traditions that shaped our Constitution, the classical theories that informed early decision in our Republic, and modern philosophies that shape recent opinions in state and federal courts. As with all legal inquiries, our mission is to determine both what is driving the long train of the law forward and what the engine is pulling.

Law and the Technologies of Life (INDL9520AA)

AWR Seminar. 3 Credits.

Professor Gaia Bernstein

Our technologies change us, but we can also restructure them. In recent decades, technologies ranging from computers, smartphones, the Internet itself, artificial intelligence, robotics, genetics and reproductive technologies transformed our lives. They changed not only the way we live but also the choices we have and what it means to be human. This seminar will examine the law and ethical problems that involve use of these technologies.

State & Local Government (PUBG7804AA)

Lecture. 2 credits.

Professor Michael Collins

This course explores the organization and operation of New Jersey state, county, and municipal government through guest lecturers and engaging classroom discussions based upon real world, practical experiences. It will evaluate the relationship of state government to its political subdivisions, including the home rule doctrine and different forms of municipalities. The course will consider laws governing governmental operations, from open public records to land use and ethics. The course will also discuss the judiciary and its role in reviewing government actions.

FALL INTERSESSION (3-day course)

Deposition Skills Program (PRMD9240AA)

1 credit. Skills.

Prerequisites: Persuasion and Advocacy and Evidence

This course provides a strong framework for basic techniques of taking and defending depositions and explores a variety of questioning methods. The result is that witnesses are encouraged to give expansive, exhaustive answers -- including other potential sources of information -- and that other potential avenues of escape are closed off. Students also learn to theory test on subjects of importance to the case. While the course utilizes lectures and demonstrations to provide an overview of the material, the focus of the class is the practice depositions in the small sections. Students receive supportive, helpful suggestions on how to improve performance, utilizing frequent repetitions in the learning-by-doing method to help master new techniques. A portion of the program is also devoted to ethical considerations in deposition settings and witness preparation.

The final schedule for the program will be circulated a few weeks before the course. Students must be available on Friday, September 29, 2023, Saturday, September 30, 2023, and Sunday, October 10, 2023, from 9:00am-6:00pm. Please contact Professor Furia with any questions about the schedule.

Seats will be proportioned based on the number of students in each division and the maximum number of seats set for the course.

Enrollment is limited to 8 students per section, with a max of 32 students. A wait list will be maintained for the program (see #6, page 10 for instructions on how to add your name to the wait list).

Course is graded High Pass, Pass, Low Pass or Fail.

OUTSTANDING TUITION BALANCE/FINANCIAL HOLDS

It is your responsibility to clear any unpaid balance with the Bursar's Office prior to registering through Banner Self-Service. Financial holds are automatically placed on your account regardless of the amount due. In addition, all monies must be received prior to the date of your registration, regardless of the source from which the tuition is being paid. If you have a current balance, you will be automatically blocked from registering for courses and will be referred to the Bursar's Office. This will result in having to restart the registration process (if cleared by the Bursar to register) and will reduce your chances of enrolling in your desired courses.

OTHER HOLDS

There are several types of holds which could affect your registration status, namely: bursar, academic, transcript, health services and financial aid. Prior to registration, it is recommended that you go online to check if you have any holds on your account. If one does exist, you should contact the appropriate department to resolve the hold. If you have any questions about a financial hold, please contact the Bursar's Office at 973-642-8385.

Some courses, and all seminars, skills offerings and clinical programs have limited enrollments. As in other law schools, Seton Hall Law School cannot assure every student the opportunity to take every desired course.

PASS/D OR FAIL OPTION POLICY

Once during a student's last four semesters, he or she may opt to take an elective course (excluding clinics) on a Pass/ D or Fail option. It is entirely up to the professor teaching the course whether he or she chooses to make this option available, and if so, may only be up to a maximum of 20% of the class. The Assistant Dean for Academic Services will determine if more students request the Pass/D or Fail option than there are seats, which students are permitted to take any course Pass/D or Fail. No student may take an AWR course using this option if he or she needs AWR certification for the graduation requirement. Courses that are offered with the option of Pass/D or Fail are noted in the schedule of classes enclosed in this handbook. A course that is only offered on a Pass/D or Fail basis shall not count as the "one elective" that may be taken on a Pass/D or Fail basis. To apply to take a course that is being offered with this option, you must submit the Pass/D or Fail Option Form for Elective Courses.

FILING DEADLINES

In the case of a seminar, a student may withdraw up to the day in which the paper is due. However, no student may attempt more than 95 credits of academic work, including retaken courses. A course from which a student withdraws with the approval of the Associate Dean for Academics does not count as an attempted course. Notwithstanding the above, any student who is involuntarily withdrawn or who withdraws, with or without approval, from more than 20 credits will be automatically dismissed. A student withdrawing from any course, including externships, journals, clinics, moot court or Independent Research will receive a grade of "WD" (Withdrawal).

It is the student's responsibility to ensure that the completed form is returned to the Office of Enrollment Services before the end of the Drop/Add period.

CONCENTRATIONS

The Law School offers concentrations in Health Law, Intellectual Property, Compliance, and GHAmES

THE LEGAL PRACTICE CURRICULUM

The Legal Practice Curriculum offers students rigorous training in the skills needed to practice law. The classes utilize simulation exercises where students are required to engage in real lawyering tasks such as advocating for a client at trial, drafting a legal brief or contract, and mediating a dispute. These courses have limited enrollment (generally 8-12 students per section), thereby allowing significant interaction with and feedback from faculty. Many of these classes are taught by adjunct professors who are experts in the area. For example, federal judges and experienced trial lawyers teach many of the litigation skills courses.

REQUIRED COURSES

Each law student is required to take three legal practice courses prior to graduation.

1. Introduction to Lawyering (LAW5050-51)
2. Appellate Advocacy (MTCT7151)
3. Persuasion and Advocacy (PRMD8210)

Introduction to Lawyering

The Introduction to Lawyering course will introduce students to the fundamental skills employed by lawyers across various practice areas and will develop within students the habits of thoughtful, reflective, and ethical professional practice. Lawyering sections will be small and students will often work collaboratively in teams on projects; thus, providing a collegial intimate academic setting.

Appellate Advocacy

Appellate Advocacy is a two-credit required course that meets once a week in sections of no more than 16 students. Each section will be taught by an instructor with the assistance of a member of the Moot Court Board, who will focus on brief writing skills, advocacy strategy and oral argument skills.

Students receive a letter grade for the course, based upon completion of an appellate brief, a final round of oral argument, and participation in class and conferences. Students will prepare drafts and a final brief on a one-issue moot court problem, present several practice rounds of oral argument and one graded round, and meet in individual conferences with the instructor.

Students must register for Appellate Advocacy during their second year. New law journal members are advised to wait until Fall semester to register for Appellate Advocacy. This sequence allows the maximum opportunity for students to participate in the Gressman Competition, the Interscholastic Moot Court Board and the Appellate Advocacy Moot Court Board. This traditional sequence also affords students maximum flexibility in completing the AWR requirement, course selection, clinical participation, and other academic/co-curricular activities.

Persuasion and Advocacy

Persuasion and Advocacy teaches students the art of persuasion. While the course uses the context of a courtroom, the skills developed are applicable across the spectrum of legal work, whether in corporate negotiations, zoning board presentations, or appellate arguments. The exercises and simulations focus on the integration of storytelling and thematic development into the basic skills of direct examination, cross-examination, opening statements, and closing arguments. This is a highly participatory course, and students will be asked to participate in drills and simulations in every class.

In addition to the sections of Persuasion and Advocacy offered in the Fall 2023, multiple sections of the course will also be offered in the 2024 Winter Session for those students who are interested in taking the course in an accelerated full-day setting.

ADVANCED LEGAL PRACTICE COURSES

The law school offers an advanced number of legal practice courses where students can further exercise and improve their lawyering skills in specialized areas such as litigation, alternative dispute resolution, and transactional practice. For the Fall 2023 semester, the following advanced legal practice courses will be offered:

1. Advanced Civil Practice (PRMD9218)
2. Advanced Criminal Practice (PRMD9219)
3. Advanced Legal Research (PRMD9270)

EXTERNSHIPS

Students can develop their practical skills in real lawyering contexts through the Externship Program. Seton Hall has a broad range of Externship placements in hundreds of not-for-profit and governmental organizations, with judges of approved courts, with select corporate counsel, and with select gaming, hospitality, entertainment, and sports organizations. The Externship Program provides students the opportunity to obtain academic credits for interning with approved organizations, provided all requirements are met.

Students are fully eligible to receive academic credit for participation in an externship program after successful completion of the first year of their JD program. There is no minimum cumulative GPA requirement for students enrolling for externships during the summer. However, students must be in good academic standing, and there is a 2.33 minimum cumulative GPA requirement for students enrolling for most externships during either the Fall or Spring semesters. In some instances, a higher cumulative GPA may be required for some externships. Please refer to the Externship Guide on the Symplicity System.

The number of credits that can be earned for externships is a maximum of eight. However, please be aware that externship credits are included in the 15-credit limit for Legal Practice and Self-Directed Work credits which can be applied towards graduation requirements. Therefore, if you are interested in participating in a clinic, you should be careful not to overextend on externship credits. Also, please keep in mind for planning purposes that an externship and a clinic cannot be taken in the same semester.

For all students interested in registering for an externship, please note the following special instructions, as you cannot register for externship through the traditional SHU Law registration for your fall courses:

1. Review the externship web page for the externship requirements and placement information at <http://law.shu.edu/career-services/externships.cfm>. Please note that before registering for the IRS externship, you must see Professor Tracy Kaye (IRS) for special program requirements. ## ADVANCED WRITING REQUIREMENT

All students are required to fulfill a substantial writing requirement for graduation. The following courses offered will fulfill this requirement. The courses listed are the only courses offered during the Fall 2023 semester which will fulfill the Advanced Writing Requirement.

Animal Law	Martin, Robert
HealthCare Fraud and Corrup	Elberg, Jacob
Law & the Technology of Life	Bernstein, Gaia
Law and Morality	Ambrosio, Michael P.
Legal and Eth Iss in Medicine	Ragone, Tara A.
Prison Law: From Jail to Home	Baroni, William E.
Public Health Law	Coleman, Carl H.
Religion and the First Amend	Carmella, Angela C.
Startup Counseling	Beylin, Ilya
You Wanna Bet? Sports Betting in the US	Corneal, Devon A.

NOTE: Students who enroll in the above courses must meet AWR standards even if they do not need AWR certification.

For all papers which are intended to satisfy the Advanced Writing Requirement, the professor must agree that the topic is appropriate for advanced legal writing credit. After completion of the paper, the professor must certify to the Assistant Dean for Academic Services that the paper satisfies the Advanced Writing Requirement. At the option of the professor, this certification may be based on revisions which are made after the student has received a final grade in the seminar. Revisions made after the conclusion of the seminar shall not result in any change in the final grade.

The following also qualify for the Advanced Writing Requirement:

Students may receive AWR certification for comments written for any of the three journals: Law Review, Legislative Journal and Circuit Review. The faculty member supervising the comment must certify that the comment satisfies the AWR requirement as specified on our website.

CURRICULUM PLANNING

Persuasion and Advocacy is a prerequisite for the advanced litigation and transactional legal practice courses, and students who are interested in further developing their skills for legal practice should take Persuasion and Advocacy early enough in their law school career to allow room for these advanced courses. To enroll in Advanced Civil Practice and Advanced Criminal Practice, students must also have completed Evidence course. Advanced Civil Practice or Advanced Criminal Practice is a pre/corequisite for either Trial of a Civil Matter or Trial of a Criminal Case.

To enroll in most clinical courses, students must first complete courses in Persuasion and Advocacy, Evidence, and Professional Responsibility.

Some legal practice courses are only offered once per year, while others may be offered only in alternating years. Thus, students should plan ahead for legal practice courses. In addition, other advanced legal practice courses may be added to the curriculum in future semesters.

LIMIT ON LEGAL PRACTICE AND SELF-DIRECTED WORK CREDITS

No more than 15 credits of legal practice and self-directed work credits shall count towards graduation. This would include legal practice courses (excluding Persuasion and Advocacy), externships, moot court (excluding Appellate Advocacy), Independent Research, and clinics (non-classroom component only). Journal credits are not included in the limitation.

LIMITATIONS ON DISTANCE LEARNING

All law students are limited to 15 credits of distance learning courses that can be used towards their law degree. Distance learning courses are indicated in the registration handbook and can be synchronous or asynchronous. Day students may be required to obtain permission from the Associate Dean to enroll in certain distance learning courses.

EQUIVALENCY COURSES

There are a number of courses which have substantial overlap in course coverage, and as a result, not all may be counted towards degree requirements.

CLASS ATTENDANCE POLICY

The Law School has a mandatory Class Attendance Policy which calls for students to attend a minimum of 75% of class sessions in a course or be administratively withdrawn from the course. No excused absences are permitted. An absence for any reason, including late registration, counts towards the maximum of 25% absences allowed.
