New & Updated Courses

Accounting for Lawyers (CORP7130)

Lecture. 2 Credits.

Professor Adam Katz

This course introduces students, who have little or no background in accounting or finance, to the basic elements of financial statements and how the financial statements can provide information on the operations, prospects, and financial condition of a business or entity. The goal of this course is to provide soon-to-be lawyers with an introductory knowledge of key accounting and finance skills necessary to be conversant with clients, other lawyers, accountants, and business valuation experts. Accounting for Lawyers covers principles or concepts used in preparing financial statements; how to account for certain specific items such as receivables, inventories, fixed assets, intangible assets, liabilities and contingencies, and revenue and expenses; and how the basic transactions of a business flow through the financial statements. We will also discuss, including ethical considerations, the role and responsibilities of independent auditors, senior company executives, and the audit committee of the board of directors in the preparation of the financial statements. In addition to examining the financial statements of various companies to see what these financial statements reveal about the companies, we will study some examples of accounting fraud and discuss how perpetrators of the fraud violated applicable accounting principles.

This course is designed for students with limited or no prior accounting background or experience. Students who successfully complete this course are not required to complete Financial Concepts for Lawyers.

The American Legal Tradition (HIPH9510AA)

Seminar. 2 Credits.

Honorable Paul Matey

This seminar will examine the foundations of the American legal system and the principles that frame the judicial power. We will explore the traditions that shaped our Constitution, the classical theories that informed early decisions in our Republic, and modern philosophies that inform judicial opinions. Our readings will include sources familiar to the founding generation including Locke, Montesquieu, and Blackstone, before considering theorists such as Story, Holmes, Hayek, and Dworkin. We will conclude with recent scholarship driving current debates.

No prerequisites are required, though our studies will build on the concepts discussed in classes on administrative law, constitutional law, and the federal courts. Grading will rest on a take-home examination.

Louvain Program

Third year students have the unique opportunity to spend a semester abroad at Université catholique de Louvain in Louvain-la-Neuve, Belgium \(Louvain Program\). As with our other international offerings, the Louvain Program is rooted in a dedication to scholarly learning, practical training, and the belief that in our globalized community, all students will derive significant benefit from an exposure to the practice of international law.

Students in the Louvain Program will be abroad in the fall semester of their third year and enrolled in up to 12 credits at the Université Catholique de Louvain, Faculty of Law and Criminology. Students may choose from 30+ courses taught in English. The tuition is paid to Seton Hall Law School and all scholarships are honored. Students must have a 3.3 GPA and must send a resume and unofficial transcript to Professor Tracy Kaye by April 15th.

OUTSTANDING TUITION BALANCE/FINANCIAL HOLDS

It is your responsibility to clear any unpaid balance with the Bursar's Office prior to registering through Banner Self-Service. Financial holds are automatically placed on your account regardless of the amount due. In addition, all monies must be received prior to the date of your registration, regardless of the source from which the tuition is being paid. If you have a current balance, you will be automatically blocked from registering for courses and will be referred to the Bursar's Office. This will result in having to restart the registration process (if cleared by the Bursar to register) and will reduce your chances of enrolling in your desired courses.

OTHER HOLDS

There are several types of holds which could affect your registration status, namely: bursar, academic, transcript, health services and financial aid. Prior to registration, it is recommended that you go online to check if you have any holds on your account. If one does exist, you should contact the appropriate department to resolve the hold. If you have any questions about a financial hold, please contact the Bursar's Office at 973-642-8385.

JD REQUIREMENTS

Please click on the above link to consult the curriculum chart for your division which lists the required courses and the semester in which they are scheduled to be taken.

COURSE REGISTRATION PROCEDURES*

1. All students registering for full-year courses are required to remain with the same professor during both semesters.
2. All students must register for required courses in the semester in which they are scheduled to be taken within the students' division unless they receive written permission from the Associate Dean for Academics to defer a requirement.
3. Full-time students must register for the majority of their courses within their division unless prior written approval is received from the Associate Dean for Academics. Day elective courses that are available to weekend students to attend remotely are noted in the schedule of classes enclosed in this handbook (credits will count towards the 15-credit cap on distance learning).
4. Course sections beginning with the letters "A-M" are day/evening courses and sections with the letter "W" are weekend courses.

*NOTE: The Law School schedules courses according to the availability of facilities and instructors. Not all courses and seminars are offered each year. Several courses may be offered only in alternate years. The Law School reserves the right to add, delete, or to change any course, or the credit for any course, at any time. Some courses, and all seminars, skills offerings and clinical programs have limited enrollments. As in other law schools, Seton Hall Law School cannot assure every student the opportunity to take every desired course.

PASS/D OR FAIL OPTION POLICY

Once during a student's last four semesters, he or she may opt to take an elective course (excluding clinics) on a Pass/ D or Fail option. It is entirely up to the professor teaching the course whether he or she chooses to make this option available, and if so, may only be up to a maximum of 20% of the class. The Assistant Dean for Academic Services will determine if more students request the Pass/D or Fail option than there are seats, which students are permitted to take any course Pass/D or Fail. No student may take an AWR course using this option if he or she needs AWR certification for the graduation requirement. Courses that are offered with the option of Pass/D or Fail are noted in the schedule of classes enclosed in this handbook. A course that is only offered on a Pass/D or Fail basis shall not count as the "one elective" that may be taken on a Pass/D or Fail basis. To apply to take a course that is being offered with this option, you must submit the Pass/D or Fail Option Form for Elective Courses.

COURSE WITHDRAWAL

A student is permitted to withdraw from a course up until the day of the scheduled examination, or if self-scheduled, the last day of examinations. In the case of a seminar, a student may withdraw up to the day in which the paper is due. However, no student may attempt more than 95 credits of academic work, including retaken courses. A course from which a student withdraws with the approval of the Associate Dean for Academics does not count as an attempted course. Notwithstanding the above, any student who is involuntarily withdrawn or who withdraws, with or without approval, from more than 20 credits will be automatically dismissed. A student withdrawing from any course, including externships, journals, clinics, moot court or Independent Research will receive a grade of "WD" (Withdrawal).

COURSE CANCELLATIONS

Students will be notified by e-mail in the event a course is cancelled.

JANUARY 2025 DEGREE APPLICATION

All JD candidates who intend to complete degree requirements after the Fall 2024 semester, must file the online Graduation Application form with the Office of Enrolment Services. Applications must be received by Monday, August 26. Failure to file this application may result in the student's graduation date being the next available date after the succeeding semester.

CREDIT FOR JOURNALS

Members/editors should register for journal credit based on their below journal status.

- New journal members register for a one credit member for both the fall and spring semesters.
- Continuing journal members (second year on journal) register for zero member credits for the fall semester (members must register for the journal even though it's for zero credits) and for a one credit member for the spring semester for a total of three credits over four semesters.
- Editors (students on the editorial board only) register for a one credit editor for the fall semester and for a two credit editor for the spring semester for a total of five credits over four semesters.

INDEPENDENT RESEARCH - Minimum 3.00 GPA

Students interested in registering for Independent Research must complete the online Independent Research Approval Form and obtain the appropriate signatures of their faculty advisor and the Independent Research Committee members. Upon submission of the approval form, students will be registered for the course, but in no case will any student be registered later than the end of the Drop/Add period (first week of the semester). It is the student's responsibility to ensure that the completed form is returned to the Office of Enrollment Services before the end of the Drop/Add period.

CONCENTRATIONS

The Law School offers concentrations in Health Law, Intellectual Property, Compliance, and GHAmES

THE LEGAL PRACTICE CURRICULUM

The Legal Practice Curriculum offers students rigorous training in the skills needed to practice law. The classes utilize simulation exercises where students are required to engage in real lawyering tasks such as advocating for a client at trial, drafting a legal brief or contract, and mediating a dispute. These courses have limited enrollment (generally 8-12 students per section), thereby allowing significant interaction with and feedback from faculty. Many of these classes are taught by adjunct professors who are experts in the area. For example, federal judges and experienced trial lawyers teach many of the litigation skills courses.

REQUIRED COURSES

Each law student is required to take three legal practice courses prior to graduation.

1. Introduction to Lawyering (LAW5050-51)
2. Appellate Advocacy (MTCT7151)
3. Persuasion and Advocacy (PRMD8210)

Introduction to Lawyering

The Introduction to Lawyering course will introduce students to the fundamental skills employed by lawyers across various practice areas and will develop within students the habits of thoughtful, reflective, and ethical professional practice. Lawyering sections will be small and students will often work collaboratively in teams on projects; thus, providing a collegial intimate academic setting.

Appellate Advocacy

Appellate Advocacy is a two-credit required course that meets once a week in sections of no more than 16 students. Each section will be taught by an instructor with the assistance of a member of the Moot Court Board, who will focus on brief writing skills, advocacy strategy and oral argument skills.

Students receive a letter grade for the course, based upon completion of an appellate brief, a final round of oral argument, and participation in class and conferences. Students will prepare drafts and a final brief on a one-issue moot court problem, present several practice rounds of oral argument and one graded round, and meet in individual conferences with the instructor.

Students must register for Appellate Advocacy during their second year. New law journal members are advised to wait until Fall semester to register for Appellate Advocacy. This sequence allows the maximum opportunity for students to participate in the Gressman Competition, the Interscholastic Moot Court Board and the Appellate Advocacy Moot Court Board. This traditional sequence also affords students maximum flexibility in completing the AWR requirement, course selection, clinical participation, and other academic/co-curricular activities.

Persuasion and Advocacy

Persuasion and Advocacy teaches students the art of persuasion. While the course uses the context of a courtroom, the skills developed are applicable across the spectrum of legal work, whether in corporate negotiations, zoning board presentations, or appellate arguments. The exercises and simulations focus on the integration of storytelling and thematic development into the basic skills of direct examination, cross-examination, opening statements, and closing arguments. This is a highly participatory course, and students will be asked to participate in drills and simulations in every class.

In addition to the sections of Persuasion and Advocacy offered in the Fall 2024, multiple sections of the course will also be offered in the 2025 Winter Session for those students who are interested in taking the course in an accelerated full-day setting.

ADVANCED LEGAL PRACTICE COURSES

The law school offers an advanced number of legal practice courses where students can further exercise and improve their lawyering skills in specialized areas such as litigation, alternative dispute resolution, and transactional practice. For the Fall 2024 semester, the following advanced legal practice courses will be offered:

1. Advanced Civil Practice (PRMD9218)
2. Advanced Criminal Practice (PRMD9219)
3. Advanced Legal Research (PRMD9270)
4. Advanced Negotiation Skills (PRMD9226)
5. Dispute Resolution Processes (PRMD8209)

EXTERNSHIPS

Students can develop their practical skills in real lawyering contexts through the Externship Program. Seton Hall has a broad range of externship placements in hundreds of not-for-profit and governmental organizations, with judges of approved courts, with select corporate counsel, and with select gaming, hospitality, entertainment, and sports organizations. The Externship Program provides students the opportunity to obtain academic credits for interning with approved organizations, provided all requirements are met.

Students are eligible to receive academic credit for participation in an externship program after successful completion of the first year of their JD program. Students must be in good academic standing, and there is a 2.33 minimum cumulative GPA requirement for students enrolling for externships during either the Fall or Spring semesters. Students who have between a 2.0 and 2.33 may receive externship credit during the Summer semester if they meet with the Director of Externships prior to registering to confirm the placement site does not require students certify they are in "good academic standing." In some instances, a higher cumulative GPA may be required for some externships. Please refer to the Externship Guide on the Simplicity System.

Students may earn a maximum of eight externship credits during their time at Seton Hall Law. However, please be aware that externship credits are included in the 15-credit limit for Legal Practice and Self-Directed Work credits which can be applied towards graduation requirements. Therefore, if you are interested in participating in a clinic, you should be careful not to overextend on externship credits. Also, please keep in mind that an externship and a clinic cannot be taken in the same semester.

For all students interested in registering for an externship, please note the following special instructions, as you cannot register for externship through the traditional SHU Law registration for your courses:

1. Review the externship web page for the externship requirements and placement information at

ADVANCED WRITING REQUIREMENT

All students are required to fulfill a substantial writing requirement for graduation. The following courses offered will fulfill this requirement. The courses listed are the only courses offered during the Fall 2024 semester which will fulfill the Advanced Writing Requirement.

Course	Section	Credits	Faculty
CORP9140 - Startup Counseling	AA	3	Beylin, Ilya
HLTH8520 - Legal and Ethical Issues in Medicine	AA3	3	Ragone, Tara A.
HLTH9524 - HealthCare Fraud and Corruption	AA4	4	Elberg, Jacob/Ragone, Tara
INDL7308 - Sports Law	WW4	4	Boland, Robert
INDL7605 - Cybersecurity Law & Policy I	WW3	3	Opderbeck, David W.
INDL9520 - Law and the Technologies of Life	AA	3	Bernstein, Gaia Y.
PUBR7900 - Prison Law: From Jail to Home	AA3	3	Baroni, William E.
PUBR7911 - Animal Law	AA	3	Martin, Robert J.

NOTE: Students who enroll in the above courses must meet AWR standards even if they do not need AWR certification.

For all papers which are intended to satisfy the Advanced Writing Requirement, the professor must agree that the topic is appropriate for advanced legal writing credit. After completion of the paper, the professor must certify to the Assistant Dean for Academic Services that the paper satisfies the Advanced Writing Requirement. At the option of the professor, this certification may be based on revisions which are made after the student has received a final grade in the seminar. Revisions made after the conclusion of the seminar shall not result in any change in the final grade.

The following also qualify for the Advanced Writing Requirement:

Students may receive AWR certification for comments written for any of the three journals: Law Review, Legislative Journal and Circuit Review. The faculty member supervising the comment must certify that the comment satisfies the AWR requirement as specified on our website.

CURRICULUM PLANNING

Persuasion and Advocacy is a prerequisite for the advanced litigation and transactional legal practice courses, and students who are interested in further developing their skills for legal practice should take Persuasion and Advocacy early enough in their law school career to allow room for these advanced courses. To enroll in Advanced Civil Practice and Advanced Criminal Practice, students must also have completed Evidence course. Advanced Civil Practice or Advanced Criminal Practice is a pre/corequisite for either Trial of a Civil Matter or Trial of a Criminal Case.

To enroll in most clinical courses, students must first complete courses in Persuasion and Advocacy, Evidence, and Professional Responsibility.

Some legal practice courses are only offered once per year, while others may be offered only in alternating years. Thus, students should plan ahead for legal practice courses. In addition, other advanced legal practice courses may be added to the curriculum in future semesters.

LIMIT ON LEGAL PRACTICE AND SELF-DIRECTED WORK CREDITS

No more than 15 credits of legal practice and self-directed work credits shall count towards graduation. This would include legal practice courses (excluding Persuasion and Advocacy), externships, moot court (excluding Appellate Advocacy), Independent Research, and clinics (non-classroom component only). Journal credits are not included in the limitation.

LIMITATIONS ON DISTANCE LEARNING

All law students are limited to 15 credits of distance learning courses that can be used towards their law degree. Distance learning courses are indicated in the registration handbook and can be synchronous or asynchronous. Day students may be required to obtain permission from the Associate Dean to enroll in certain distance learning courses.

EQUIVALENCY COURSES

There are a number of courses which have substantial overlap in course coverage, and as a result, not all may be counted towards degree requirements.

CLASS ATTENDANCE POLICY

The Law School has a mandatory Class Attendance Policy which calls for students to attend a minimum of 75% of class sessions in a course to receive credit. Any student who fails to do so will be administratively withdrawn from the course. No excused absences are permitted. An absence for any reason, including late registration, counts towards the maximum of 25% absences allowed. Weekend, Hybrid, and fully online/remote classes have a more stringent attendance requirement, which is below. Given the importance of class participation in skills courses, students are permitted no more than two absences from a skills class during the semester – unless the professor has specified otherwise. Absences beyond two in a given semester in a skills course may lead to administrative withdrawal from the course. Some skills courses, especially those operating during summer or winter sessions, do not permit any absences due to the compressed nature of these classes.

Except for students who have been approved to be fully remote, all students must be physically present in the classroom to be counted as present for a class. Per law school policy, students who arrive in class (either in person or remotely) more than 10 minutes after the start time, or who leave class before the official end time will not be counted as present.

HYBRID AND ONLINE COURSE ATTENDANCE POLICY (Weekend classes and limited remote synchronous courses)

Students enrolled in weekend/hybrid courses are expected to attend all scheduled in person classes. Please do not ask the professor to excuse an absence. Students missing more than 25% of the scheduled classes, for any reason (excused or unexcused), will be administratively withdrawn. Some courses, including some legal practice courses, and some professors may adopt a more stringent attendance policy if the nature of the courses requires it.

Students must participate in and/or complete the online/distance portion of hybrid courses in order to receive credit for the course. A student who fails to participate in or complete the online/distance assignments for three modules will be withdrawn from the course. For purposes of this policy, a module consists of the online/distance activities accompanying one class session.

For fully online courses which are asynchronous, attendance consists entirely of participation in online assignments and activities. In semester-long courses, failure to participate in online assignments and activities for three weeks will result in the student being withdrawn from the course. In courses that run for less than a full semester, failure to participate in the online assignments for 25% of the course (e.g., two weeks for an eight-week course) will result in the student being withdrawn from the course.

For remote courses which are live/synchronous, students are required to attend at least 75% of the scheduled classes or they will be administratively withdrawn. In order to receive credit for attendance students must be logged into the online learning platform on time and must be on screen for the entire class. A ten-minute grace period will be given to account for lateness due to technology issues.
