

Louis Rogacki, Deputy Director & Assistant Attorney General, NJ Div. of Gaming Enforcement

Louis S. Rogacki, Assistant Attorney General, New Jersey Division of Gaming Enforcement - was sworn in as a Deputy Attorney General in 1993 at the Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control, where he handled licensing, regulatory and enforcement matters. In 2002, he moved to the Division of Gaming Enforcement with the Service Industry Licensing Bureau (SILB). He was appointed Deputy Director and Assistant Attorney General at DGE in November of 2016. AAG Rogacki has served key roles at DGE regarding the implementation of S-11/S-12 in 2011, which made the Division the principal gaming regulatory agency in New Jersey, internet gaming in 2013, and again in 2018 when New Jersey launched retail and mobile sports wagering. He also oversaw the operational and technical teams responsible for the openings of both Hard Rock Casino and Ocean Casino in June 2018. As Deputy Director he has operational oversight of DGE's service industry licensing, regulatory prosecutions and in-house technical services lab (legal). These responsibilities entail overseeing policy matters related to all aspects of land based casinos, internet gaming, and retail/mobile sports wagering, including but not limited to anti-money laundering (AML), self-exclusion, Responsible Gaming, prosecution of administrative violations, and addressing illegal offshore and sweepstakes operators. AAG Rogacki has served on the Board of Trustees of the International Association of Gaming Regulators (IAGR) since October 2024 and also serves on the advisory board for the Seton Hall Law School Gaming Law, Compliance and Integrity Bootcamp. He has served in this advisory role since 2019.
