OLIVARES (Mexico City)

abraham.diaz@olivares.mx

Abraham Díaz co-chairs OLIVARES' Litigation Team and Data Privacy and IT Industry groups and has a wealth of knowledge across all areas of intellectual property (IP), with a focus on litigation, trademark law, unfair competition, copyright, right of publicity, trade secrets, data privacy, as well as on plant breeder's rights. He also handles domain disputes under the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (UDRP) and the Local Dispute Resolution Policy (LDRP) and provides strategic advice on website development, protection of website content, online advertisement, and compliance on e-commerce and privacy law regulations. Mr. Díaz has authored articles on IP and Internet matters, as well as on privacy law, for leading industry publications and has lectured on cutting-edge IP topics in national and international fora. His representative cases include defense of the producers of the documentary film, Presunto Culpable from various civil lawsuits filed by individuals portrayed in the documentary, which set the basis for regulations now applicable to the documentary film industry in connection with the use of a person's image.
