Adrián del Paso

Partner

DLA Piper (Mexico City)

Adrián del Paso is a partner of the environmental, life sciences, healthcare & regulatory practices of DLA Piper (Mexico City), a global firm with industry specialized local reach across the world. With a solid track record of more than twenty years of practice and experience, he has represented international and local companies in a wide range of industries (including pharmaceutical, healthcare, and medical devices), providing sound advice in these areas of the law.

Before joining DLA Piper, Adrián was a co-founding partner and contributed to the growth of two mid-size law firms based in Mexico City for almost 15 years, where he enhanced his entrepreneurial experience as a partner and achieved market, peer and client recognition in his areas of practice. Adrián has been recognized as a leading practitioner by Chambers and Partners and Legal 500. From his prior experience and professional formation, Adrián worked in several top transactional Firms in Mexico, including Creel, García-Cuellar, Aiza y Enríquez, and Barrera, Siqueiros y Torres Landa (now Hogan Lovells Cadwalader).

Adrián holds a law degree (JD equivalent) from Universidad Iberoamericana -Mexico City-, a Master's degree in Environmental Policy and Management from Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, and an LL.M. in Business Law from Northwestern University Pritzker School of Law, among other Life Sciences, environmental, ESG, real estate, and business post graduate degree diplomas, programs and courses from reputed Mexican and US universities.

Adrián has participated as a speaker at Seton Hall's Latin America Healthcare Compliance Certificate since its first edition in 2017, held in Buenos Aires, Argentina.
