

Alex Grant is the Managing Director of 340B for Community Pride Pharmacy and other New Jersey Pharmacy's. Alex works with Community Health providers to help manage the treatment of patients infectious disease, chronic disease, medical assisted treatment and behavior health. He has helped create treatment programs that cure and manage patients with infectious disease to help reduce future transmission in NJ. Alex has a passion for helping others in the communities in which he works. He holds a BA in Food Marketing from Saint Joseph's University.