

Amanda MorelandProgram Manager*

Reckitt Benckiser

Amanda is a Program Manager for the data privacy program at Reckitt Benckiser. In her role, she helps different teams across the organization move forward with projects or processes involving personal information, making sure privacy rules and best practices are followed. She manages the PIA process and liaises with third parties and the internal Cyber team to ensure risk assessments are performed. Amanda earned an M.S.J. from Seton Hall Law.