Amber Osterbrink is a second-year student at Seton Hall University School of Law. As Vice President of the Entertainment and Sports Law Society, she has played a supporting role in planning this year's symposium. On campus, Amber is also a Westlaw Student Brand Ambassador, Student Ambassador, and peer mentor. She graduated from Rutgers University–New Brunswick in 2020 and received her B.A. in Communication, with a minor in Political Science. Currently, Amber is a Paralegal at the Law Offices of Kisha M. Hebbon, LLC, with a concentration on family law. Her passions lie in the sports and gaming law industry. While pursuing her J.D., she will also be concentrating on GHAmES (Gaming, Hospitality, Entertainment, and Sports law).
