anne-sophie.bricca@terumobct.com

With her team, Anne-Sophie Bricca provides legal and compliance support to Terumo BCT entities in EMEA. She is a member of Terumo BCT's Executive Leadership Team, and she represents Terumo at MedTech Europe (the European association of the medical devices and diagnostic industry). Since January 2018, she has assumed the Chair of the Ethics and Compliance Group and seat at the Code Committee. She is also the Co-Chair of the Strategic Committee and a member of the Board of ETHICS (International Society of Healthcare Ethics and Compliance).

Before joining Terumo BCT in 2009, Ms. Bricca worked as in-house counsel for the IT industry (HP, CPG International, Ingram Micro). She also worked as a general counsel for Franco Dragone Entertainment Group for the design and making of the Macao show, "The House of Dancing Water."

Ms. Bricca holds two post-graduate degrees in European Laws from the University Robert Schuman (Strasbourg) and in International Laws from the Université Libre de Bruxelles (Brussels). She was the laureate of the international Rousseau Competition in International Laws chaired by Boutros Boutros-Ghali in 1997.
