

Beata Safari

Privacy Counsel and Assistant Secretary to the Board of Directors

Steve Madden

Beata Safari serves as Steve Madden's sole privacy counsel and assistant secretary to the Board of Directors. She is responsible for establishing critical priorities within the company's privacy program, advising on employment and other compliance issues, and assisting with commercial contracts and negotiations. In her free time, Beata teaches Business Law, Contract Law, Legal Research, and Tort Law at the Union College of New Jersey as an adjunct professor.

Previously, Beata was an associate at Hawkins Delafield & Wood, LLP and Octillo LLP, and clerked for Judge Carmen Messano in the NJ Appellate Division. She received her J.D. from Seton Hall University School of Law and LL.M. from Columbia Law School and has CIPP/US and CIPP/E certification.