

SETON HALL | LAW

Healthcare Compliance
Certificate Program

Benny Spiewak

Founding Partner
SPLaw (São Paulo)

Benny Spiewak is a founding partner of SPLaw in São Paulo, where he focuses on Life Sciences, Healthcare Compliance, Intellectual Property, Regulatory and Technology matters. He advises multinational pharmaceutical, biotechnology, medical technology and healthcare companies on anti-bribery and anti-corruption compliance, healthcare interactions, investigations, data protection, digital health, artificial intelligence governance, regulatory matters and complex relationships with public-sector stakeholders.

Benny has extensive experience working at the intersection of law, innovation and highly regulated industries. He holds an LL.M. in Intellectual Property Law, with a concentration in Pharmaceutical Law, from The George Washington University Law School in Washington, D.C., and has also studied Intellectual Property and Technology Law at Fundação Getulio Vargas and the Franklin Pierce Law Center. His international experience includes work and academic activities involving the World Intellectual Property Organization - WIPO, the World Health Organization - WHO, the World Trade Organization - WTO and the Biotechnology Innovation Organization - BIO.

Benny is a long-time faculty member of Seton Hall Law School's Latin America Healthcare Compliance Certificate Program and regularly teaches and speaks on healthcare compliance, data protection, life sciences regulation, intellectual property and governance.