Borys Dackiw has been a partner of Baker McKenzie since 1995. In 2008, he was appointed managing partner of the Gulf offices (including Abu Dhabi, Riyadh, and Bahrain), coordinating the opening of the Abu Dhabi and Doha offices and the merger in the UAE with Habib Al Mulla in July 2013. He is head of the Compliance practice in the Gulf and also advises on mergers & acquisitions (including privatizations), private equity, and general corporate and commercial law.

Mr. Dackiw regularly advises clients across various industries on their compliance and anti-bribery policies and programs and has participated in whistleblower interviews relating to allegations of bribery and other bribery-related investigations. He also works with in-house legal teams of multi-national clients to deliver tailored trainings on anti-corruption issues, including legal developments and enforcement trends in the UAE.

Prior to this appointment, Mr. Dackiw held the position of managing partner in the Prague (Czech Republic) and Kyiv (Ukraine) offices of Baker McKenzie.

Mr. Dackiw's representative experience includes advising a global industrial company on an investigation into embezzlement claims and compliance issues following its global acquisition of another major player in this sector and its rapid expansion across the MENA region, including filing claims with the UAE civil and criminal courts against the individuals involved and identifying remedial measures for the client to assist with their compliance programs and processes.

Mr. Dackiw received a B.S., magna cum laude, from Georgetown University School of Foreign Service, his J.D. from Columbia University, and a Master's in International Policy Studies from Stanford University.
