

Brianne Doura-Schawohl, Vice President, US Policy and Strategic Development, EPIC Risk Management

Brianne Doura-Schawohl serves as Vice President of US Policy and Strategic Development for EPIC Risk Management. EPIC Risk Management is a global harm prevention consultancy, conducting work in over 23 countries. She most recently served as Legislative Director for the National Council on Problem Gambling (NCPG). Her experience includes a decade of leadership in advocacy, public policy, government affairs, and communications.

Doura-Schawohl's experience spans a wide range of work with executive and legislative branch officials and private sector stakeholders at the international, federal, state, and local levels of government. She has a history of experience and achievements in United States Congressional legislative work, including a diverse portfolio of complex problem gambling policy issues. This continues to be invaluable in her ability to make a difference on behalf of people with gambling problems around the world.

Doura-Schawohl works with Congress and many state legislatures and regulators to provide expert advice on gambling policy. She continues to work with stakeholders on both sides of the aisle in state legislatures across the country. Additionally, she has been featured in numerous local, state, national, and international media, including CBC, ESPN, and CNBC.

In 2019 she was appointed as a member of the Digital Gaming Advisory Group for the State of Hawaii and served on numerous coalitions. In 2020 she was a guest faculty member for Seton Hall Law School at their Gaming Law, Compliance, and Integrity Program. She continues to speak at many conferences and other public events on gaming policy in the United States, Europe, Canada, and Australia.

Prior to joining NCPG, Doura-Schawohl served as Director of Policy and Communications for the Massachusetts Council on Compulsive Gambling. She also worked as the Associate Director of Operations & Development at the National Association of Development Companies (NADCO) in McLean, Virginia.

Mrs. Doura-Schawohl holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of Mary Washington. She resides in Fairfax, Virginia with her family.
