

Chad Hawley, Associate Commissioner, Policy, Big Ten Conference

Pittsburgh, PA

Chad Hawley is in his twentieth year at the Big Ten Conference, and his twenty-fifth year in intercollegiate athletics administration. In his role at the Big Ten he provides assistance to member institutions on all issues related to Conference and NCAA governance. He has previously worked in the conference offices of the Mid-Continent Conference and Ivy League, and on campus at North Carolina State University and Appalachian State University. Chad was a men's soccer student-athlete at Appalachian, where he earned a BS in Business Administration. He also holds a Juris Doctor degree from Loyola University Chicago. Chad and his family reside in