Charla Cousar

Harm Reduction Coordinator

New Jersey Department of Health, Division of HIV, STD, and TB Services

Charla Cousar (she/her) serves as the Harm Reduction Coordinator, for the New Jersey Department of Health, Division of HIV, STD, and TB Services (NJDOH, DHSTS). Within this role, she and her team oversee the authorization process for all harm reduction centers in the state, as well as the implementation of harm reduction expansion initiatives for funded and non-funded HRCs and the Harm Reduction Health Program (formerly known as ARCH Nurse services). Charla also functions as a Program Management Officer (PMO) in the Division's HIV Services Unit, managing a portfolio of HIV prevention and care & treatment grants. She has worked in various capacities across the NJ HIV services landscape since 2011, beginning as a Ryan White Part A Program Monitor at the Newark Department of Health and later leading a small but mighty team as Program Manager at Iris House, Inc. in Plainfield. Charla received her bachelor's degree from Rutgers University – New Brunswick and is a recent transplant to South Jersey where she resides with her husband and three daughters.
