Dalia Adel Mohsen

Health Care Compliance Officer for Medical & Consumer Division

Johnson & Johnson Egypt (Cairo)

Dalia Adel Mohsen, an Egyptian national, is a compliance veteran with over eighteen years of experience in local and multinational companies across various geographies within the Middle East. Throughout her career, she championed the various disciplines of compliance including anti-corruption, risk assessment, and investigations. She also spear-headed compliance harmonization during three different mergers, a critical role in the transition. She has extensive experience in putting corporate compliance strategies in place to secure the appropriate level of risk controls as well as establishing due diligence processes for direct and indirect engagements.
