

SETON HALL | LAW

Sports Law Symposium: Sports in Time of Change
February 15 – 16, 2023

Dan Lust, Esq.

Sports Law Attorney, Moritt Hock & Hamroff

Host of the Conduct Detrimental: THE Sports Law Podcast

Sports Law Professor, New York Law School

dlust@moritthock.com

Dan Lust is a Sports Law Attorney for Moritt Hock & Hamroff in New York where he counsels on litigation and transactional matters for athletes, agents, businesses, and schools on issues specific to professional and amateur sports. Prior to securing his JD from Fordham Law, Dan worked for the New York Giants in their Public Relations Department and also worked on several MLB salary arbitration cases for baseball players and teams. Outside of his role in private practice, Dan is the Sports Law Professor at New York Law School and serves as the principal advisor to the school's "NIL Pro Bono Project." Dan is regularly featured across national and local media for his legal analysis on high-profile matters including for ESPN, The Athletic, Front Office Sports, Fox Sports, and CBS Sports. He is also the host of the popular sports law podcast "Conduct Detrimental" and can be found @SportsLawLust on social media.