David Styler

Senior Vice President, Chief Compliance Officer
Horizon Therapeutics

David joined Horizon in October 2018 when he became Senior Vice President and Chief Compliance Officer. In that role he is responsible for all ethics and compliance related matters across the globe as well as Privacy/data protection. In addition David chairs Horizon's Enterprise Risk Management Program.

Prior to joining Horizon, David was the Vice President and Chief Compliance Officer for Takeda Pharmaceuticals in the US and later became the Head of Global Compliance Governance and Investigations in 2015.

Prior to joining Takeda, David was the Interim Global Chief Compliance Officer at Aon where he was responsible for overseeing compliance and regulatory risk areas including: data privacy, anti-corruption, trade sanctions, client transparency, licensing and relationships with regulators on a global level. When David joined Aon in June 2009 he oversaw Aon's global anti-corruption and trade sanctions compliance programs. In addition he also managed Aon's employee helpline and oversaw Aon's internal investigations process.

Prior to joining Aon, David worked in the Ethics and Compliance Department at Abbott Laboratories for over six years where he held various positions including International Compliance Officer and Director of Internal Investigations. Before joining the private sector, David was an Assistant United States Attorney in the Northern District of Illinois where he prosecuted a variety of cases ranging from bank and wire fraud schemes to complex narcotics and gang organizations.

David is also associated with various ethics and compliance related organizations, including American Conference Institute and The Conference Board, where he has served as a speaker and panelist. He also participated as a panelist at the First International Medical Device Compliance Congress in Paris, France in May 2008.
