

Frank Chesky, Vice President & Interim General Counsel, Hard Rock International
frank.chesky@hardrock.com

Frank Chesky is the Vice President and Interim General Counsel at Hard Rock International. In this role, Frank's work focuses on gaming and hospitality business development, compliance, and regulatory matters for the company, which operates venues in over 70 countries spanning 309 locations, including casinos, hotels, live performance venues, and cafes. He has been practicing law for nearly 25 years, with the last 14 years specializing in gaming law. Prior to being appointed to his current position, Frank was the Vice President and Deputy General Counsel for Hard Rock International, and also Vice President & General Counsel at Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Atlantic City. Before joining Hard Rock, he was the Executive Vice President & General Counsel at Sportech, Inc.

Frank is admitted to practice in New Jersey, Connecticut, New York, and Florida. He is a 1999 graduate of Seton Hall University School of Law. He received his Bachelor's degree in Biology from Fairfield University in 1992, and his Master's degree in Public Policy from George Washington University in 1997.

Originally from Connecticut, Frank now lives in Florida with his husband of 16 years and their three cats. In his spare time, Frank enjoys traveling and snow skiing, and is an avid sci-fi movie buff.