Gabriela Morette joined Johnson & Johnson in July, 2021, in the Global Privacy organization, where she oversees the modernization and implementation of the privacy compliance program for the Johnson & Johnson operating companies across all sectors in Latin America. In this role, she provides strategic support to senior management on initiatives involving privacy and the use of personal data in the region. Gabriela serves as a member of the Global Privacy Leadership Team and is based in São Paulo, Brazil.

Prior to joining Johnson & Johnson, Gabriela practiced as a partner in the Law Firm of Trench, Rossi e Watanabe Advogados, São Paulo, Brazil, where she specialized in privacy, data protection, technology and intellectual property. She has over 18 years of experience in private practice advising clients in different industries, including healthcare, and has spent time on secondment with Baker & McKenzie in London.

Gabriela has a Law Degree from Faculdade de Direito da Universidade de São Paulo, Brazil, and has completed her LLM (Masters in Law) in intellectual property at King's College London (University of London).
