Ghada El Ehwany has nearly 20 years' experience in the Middle East, particularly in Egypt, Saudi Arabia, and the UAE, focusing on corporate and commercial transactions. She was formerly counsel and Knowledge Manager of the UAE offices, having been based in Dubai since 2013, and has returned to Baker McKenzie's Cairo office, Helmy, Hamza & Partners, where she previously worked for fourteen years.

Ms. Ehwany specializes in corporate, commercial, and labor matters, with a specific focus on mergers & acquisitions, health care regulatory, insolvency, compliance, investigations, and dispute resolution matters. She has also developed and delivered Continuing Legal Practice Development training courses accredited by the Dubai Legal Affairs Department on a wide range of UAE legal issues and legislative developments. Her representative experience includes advising a leading pharmaceutical company in relation to its acquisition of a local pharmaceutical manufacturing facility in the UAE.
