

Imam Dr. Mohamad Jebara

Islamic Scholar & Scriptural Philologist

Imam Dr. Mohamad Jebara is defined by a relentless pursuit of wisdom across diverse fields. He is a modern polymath whose journey—from Quranic prodigy to global scholar, bestselling author, acclaimed artist and dynamic voice for change—is a masterclass in intellectual curiosity and human resilience. Jebara bridges chasms of history and tradition, revealing the vibrant, universal truths that lie beneath centuries of dogma.

Jebara's uniqueness was evident from a young age. He memorized the entire Quran by twelve, but his journey went deeper than rote learning. By thirteen, he founded his first academy, Cordova, to popularize classical Arabic and Quranic sciences, a sign of his mission to make esoteric knowledge accessible. Dr. Jebara's scholarly foundation was solidified through a rare, 33-step chain of transmission tracing his knowledge directly back to the Prophet Muhammad—a mark of authenticity in the world of Islamic scholarship. Dr. Jebara leverages this precious legacy to re-energize and reclaim, presenting a dynamic and contextual understanding of Islam.

As a scriptural philologist, Jebara uses his profound mastery of classical Arabic and Semitic languages to unlock hidden layers of meaning in sacred texts. This academic rigour is at the heart of his bestselling books, which have captivated a global audience.
