

SETON HALL | LAW

Healthcare Compliance
Certificate Program

Imelda Alvarez Estrada

CEO and Founder

Comply Latam S.C.

She has more than 20 years of experience in the field of Integrity and Compliance in Latin America. Imelda has consulted for clients in diverse industries including Healthcare, Sports, Technology, Cybersecurity, Loyalty, Consumer Goods, Trade Associations and ONGs, among others. Imelda chaired the Latin American Compliance network for the Pharmaceutical and Medical Device Industry (2014-2018), She has been Advisory Board member for the Healthcare Compliance Certificate Programs for Latin America at University of Miami and Seton Hall Law.

Imelda has been international speaker since 2012 in specialized compliance forums in diverse cities around the world. She has been part of the faculty in specialized programs at the University of Miami, Seton Hall Law, ADEN Business School, Fifarma, Cetifarma, IFI, School of Medicine at Tecnológico de Monterrey and Centro de Estudios Jurídicos Carbonell. She holds a law degree from Universidad Intercontinental in Mexico City, she has an MBA from the IPADE Business School, Imelda is certified by the University of Miami in the Latin American Health Care Compliance Certificate Program in 2012, she is Certified Auditor for ISO37001 and former ISO19600 by Ethic Intelligence. Her former positions in the corporate world were Regional Compliance Officer for Latin America and Canada at Novartis (2010-2018) and Legal Director and Compliance Officer at Sandoz in Mexico (2007-2010).

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/imelda-alvarez/>