Jeremy Berkowitz is a Senior Director in the Paul Hastings Privacy and Cybersecurity Solutions Group. He closely works with clients on addressing privacy compliance issues and operationalizing privacy programs to meet new regulatory and risk requirements.

Mr. Berkowitz has 13 years of experience assisting clients with privacy and cybersecurity compliance and risk challenges. Prior to Paul Hastings, he worked at several major management consulting firms where he helped clients 1) address privacy regulatory issues around different laws and frameworks (e.g., CPRA, GDPR); 2) build out privacy governance functions; and 3) plan for and implement privacy enhancing technologies. Mr. Berkowitz has also consulted with the National Institute of Standards and Technology on updates and revisions to its privacy risk framework documentation. Prior to law school, Mr. Berkowitz was a special assistant for the Board of Directors of the U.S. Export-Import Bank.

Mr. Berkowitz received his undergraduate degree from the University of Michigan and Juris Doctorate from the Catholic University Columbus School of Law. He is a member of the Maryland Bar and is in the process of waiving into the DC Bar. Mr. Berkowitz is an active member of the Federal Communications Bar Association where he co-chairs the Privacy and Data Security Committee, and the International Association of Privacy Professionals.
