

John T. Wolak

Chair, Privacy & Data Security Team

Director, Business & Commercial Litigation Group

Gibbons P.C.

John chairs the Privacy & Data Security Team at Gibbons P.C., which helps clients effectively manage data and the corresponding risks throughout the information life cycle.

John regularly counsels clients on compliance requirements under the ever-increasing list of international, federal, and state privacy and security statutes and regulations. He also works with clients on execution and implementation of artificial intelligence systems and processes, incident and breach prevention, detection, mitigation, and response, including interacting with regulators and law enforcement, fulfilling notification obligations to impacted consumers, and meeting contractual obligations to third parties.
