

SETON HALL | LAW

Healthcare Compliance
Certificate Program

Juan Pablo Malfavon

Legal Director LATAM

AstraZeneca (Mexico City)

Juan Pablo has been working as an in-house counsel in Mexico and the US, in companies such as Philip Morris/Kraft Foods, GM, Colgate-Palmolive, and the last 20+ years within the pharmaceutical industry at Abbott, Pfizer, Zoetis, Alcon and currently AstraZeneca.

He has held key roles in major mergers, acquisitions, and spin-offs, including the spin-off of Hospira from Abbott, the divestiture of Pfizer's Consumer Business to J&J, the acquisition of Wyeth from Pfizer, the divestiture of Pfizer's Nutritional Business to Nestlé, the spin-off from Pfizer & IPO of Zoetis and spin-off from Novartis & IPO of Alcon, successful implementation of the supply model for the COVID-19 vaccine in LATAM, and has won for four consecutive years the Global Legal Award at AstraZeneca, for his contribution to projects that have positively impacted the company and the patients whose lives they help transform.

His professional background includes an MBA degree from Universidad Adolfo Ibanez in Miami, a couple of post-graduate courses in Economics, Corporate and Commercial Law from Universidad Panamericana, a diploma course in Managerial Skills from Universidad Iberoamericana and a Law Degree from Universidad Anahuac in Mexico.