Juliet Gunev

Partner, Litigation Department

Willkie

jgunev@willkie.com

Juliet Gunev is a partner in Willkie's Litigation Department. She is based in Los Angeles.

Juliet's practice focuses on representing and defending corporations and individuals in white-collar criminal matters and cross-border investigations (both internal and government-facing), and providing proactive compliance program counseling to global clients. She has substantial prior experience advising US and multinational companies on the design and implementation of global compliance programs and in conducting anti-corruption investigations and due diligence for acquisitions, joint ventures, and private equity transactions. Having previously served as an in-house compliance attorney for a global resources company, Juliet focuses on providing practical and fit-for-purpose advice on the prevention, mitigation, and remediation of ethics, compliance, and whistleblower related risks.

*Admitted only to the New York Bar. Practicing under the supervision of members of the CA Bar.

Juliet brings varied international and in-house experience in Asia and the Americas, including previously serving as an anti-corruption attorney in global resource company BHP's Ethics & Compliance function, where she was based in teams in Melbourne, Australia, and Houston, Texas. Prior to joining Willkie in 2025, Juliet practiced at global law firms based in New York, Los Angeles, and Melbourne.
