Laura Perkins is a partner in Cadwalader's Compliance, Investigations & Enforcement practice. Laura's practice focuses on high-stakes government and internal investigations, crisis management, white collar criminal defense and cross border compliance counseling. Laura assists corporations, boards of directors, audit committees and senior executives with sensitive internal investigations and proceedings before the DOJ, the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and other U.S. and international agencies, with a particular focus on FCPA/anti-corruption, financial fraud, False Claims Act violations, sanctions violations and money laundering. Before joining Cadwalader, Laura was a former senior official and prosecutor with the Criminal Division of the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ). During her time with the DOJ, Laura served as Assistant Chief of the FCPA Unit and Senior Counsel to the Assistant General.
