Lauren Kootman

Assistant Chief, Corporate Enforcement, Compliance & Policy Unit, Fraud Section, Criminal Division
U.S. Department of Justice

Lauren is an Assistant Chief in the Corporate Enforcement, Compliance & Policy Unit in the Fraud Section, Criminal Division of the U.S. Department of Justice. She works with the Fraud Section's litigating units on issues involving corporate compliance, including evaluating the effectiveness of compliance programs, determining whether an independent compliance monitor should be imposed as part of a corporate resolution, and overseeing post-resolution compliance obligations. Prior to joining the Fraud Section, Lauren was a partner in the Washington, D.C. office of a global law firm where she counseled companies on criminal and civil enforcement and compliance issues, including conducting internal investigations and implementing corporate compliance programs. In that role, Lauren also served as a member of an independent compliance monitor team appointed in connection with a plea agreement between DOJ and a Brazilian petrochemical company and counseled a multinational musculoskeletal healthcare company during its independent compliance monitorship.
