

Leann Pinto

Senior Licensing Executive | Attorney
Patent Platform Services

Leann Pinto is an IP and business attorney who practices at the intersection of IP, AI, data and deep tech, specifically focused on patent licensing, complex commercial agreements and early-stage corporate development. She is currently advising clients on IP strategy, trade secrets, data and technology licenses. After a private practice career at Haug Partners and then Sidley Austin in New York, where she represented branded pharmaceutical companies in high-stakes Hatch-Waxman patent litigations and Inter Partes Review proceedings, she served as Head of Regulatory Compliance at Aquestive Therapeutics then as Director of Patent Licensing at IBM.

Leann has been recognized as a leading global IP strategist and nominated to the Intellectual Asset Management Strategy 300 ranks, speaking globally on IP monetization and portfolio management at international forums including the World Intellectual Property Organization and the USPTO. Leann holds a B.S. in Pharmaceutical Sciences from the University of Toledo College of Pharmacy, graduating magna cum laude and valedictorian, and a J.D. from Seton Hall Law, where she also graduated magna cum laude and recognized by Order of the Coif.